Planners Set New Hearing For 365 Acres

At the request of Robert Kahn, president of the Happy Valley Improvement Association, the Contra Costa County Planning Commission agreed unanimously Tuesday evening to again postpone a decision on a rezoning petition for 365 acres in Sleepy Hollow.

An open meeting which can be attended by all interested parties is now scheduled for April 3.

Kahn read a letter to the commission stating in part that an open meeting at a future date would allow residents time to study and comment on the findings of various reports.

THE LAND in question is located at the northeasterly end of Lombardy Lane and extends eastward to Happy Valley Road.

G & L Investment Corporation is seeking to rezone the 365 acres from general agricultural to family residential in order to build homes in the $40,000-$60,000 bracket.

Proposed lots would range from 20,000 to 40,000 square feet.

The original public hearing was held January 2, at which time Frank Draeger, engineer representing G & L, said that the building program would extend over an eight to 10-year period. He stated that a new sewer line would be installed, and that school sites would be made available.

A REPORT presented at this meeting from the county flood control district indicated that there was no danger of flooding in the proposed development.

A field trip was taken by members of the county planning staff on January 19.

At a closed meeting on February 6, a decision was postponed until March 6.

Kahn again requested a postponement on behalf of the Happy Valley Improvement Association to allow affected residents time to consider information that the planning staff has assembled from school districts. Also, they could consider a circulation study worked out by the county traffic engineer.

Three Orinda civic organizations originally objected to the proposed development.

Percy Dawson, representing the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association, stated that his group did not object to lot size; but feared access roads to the property would be inadequate. This could present a hazard to Sleepy Hollow residents, he said.

ERIC NIELSEN, president of the Orinda Association, stated that his organization didn't object to the rezoning as such. However, they were concerned as to the serious strain the G & L development would put on road access, flood control, school service and related problems.

The various studies which have been completed were made with and without a proposed new high school in the district.

Acalanes Union High School trustees had requested a site for a new high school, although the entire subdivision is in the Alhambra Union High School District.

THE ORINDA Union School District trustees determined that the district would have to accept the area if future residents presented a hardship petition to the county.

According to a member of the traffic engineer's staff, the study showed that while more traffic undoubtedly would be added to the existing roads, it would not make any roads deficient.

The commission's traffic survey will be given in detail in next week's Sun.

Reservoir's Recreational Use Probed

Cost estimates and a plan for the operation of the Lafayette Reservoir as a recreation area are presently under study by an executive committee of the Citizen's Advisory Committee on Recreational Use of East Bay Reservoirs.

A physical plan for recreational use of the Lafayette reservoir was presented at a general committee meeting in January.

The executive or "working" committee had its preliminary plans approved at the January meeting and was advised to follow it with a final, detailed report.

Hart Eastman of East Bay Municipal Utility District said the second report will be submitted to the general committee in the next 30 to 60 days.

WORKING with the subcommittee at the present is Fred L. Hector, a professional recreation planner, hired by the advisory group. John Malloy of EBMUD, the committee's land and properties planner, is assisting Hector.

Under consideration in phase two of the report is an operator of the area if it becomes a recreational facility. Eastman said EBMUD, the county park department or possibility of a private firm are some of the considerations.

Another major part of the current study is the cost of operating such a facility and the estimated revenues.

Also being studied is the extent to which the area will be developed.

Malloy presented a summary of Hector's report at the January meeting, which explained the plans.

COST of the proposed facilities was set at approximately $300,000.

The operation is expected to be self-supporting, according to Malloy.

In answer to questions at the meeting, Malloy said the original investment would be returned and maintenance of the facilities provided without adding to the cost of the district's water supply or residents' tax bill.

One main entrance to the area is proposed over a two-lane paved road to the dam and picnic area. There would also be a one-lane gravel all-year road around the lake. Water facilities and sanitary facilities would be provided.

Sufficient non-power boats for rental by some concessionaire was also proposed. Some electric motors might be permitted, the report stated.

BOAT docks would be built at the dam. Fishing from catwalks would be permitted with other shoreline catwalks provided as required.

Several dispersed picnic areas are proposed with two in the plans for first development of the reservior.

An administration building was suggested at the dam area with concession accommodations.

The report described the reservoir as having 14,000 feet of shoreline.

The report also recommended a resident ranger with a home on the shore of the lake.

A committee member inquired to possible plans for use of the more remote wooded areas beyond the intensive use area.

THERE are 131 acres of water area and seven times that in surrounding land.

However, Malloy said no immediate plans had been made for the land use beyond the lake zone.

At the meeting it was suggester that only a minimum of change from the area's wild and natural state be allowed.

THE ADVISORY committee was established through EBMUD following a county request for a plan to open the Lafayette reservoir for recreation purposes.

Under A.B. 286, the county must contribute financially for such a study, but EBMUD must open the reservoir if the plan is approved by the State Department of Public Health.

A refusal by EBMUD to open the reservoir for recreation after the preliminary steps, would necessitate a vote of the people of the district.

Coll Will Ask County Gun, Ammo Law

Supervisor Tom Coll told The Sun this week that he feels that there should be a county ordinance controlling the sale of firearms and ammunition to youngsters.

He said that he will ask the district attorney's office next week to prepare such an ordinance.

Supervisor Mel Nielsen was in Sacramento and was unavailable for comment.

Colby Named Assoc. Editor Of Sun Papers

Norman Colby, who has been editor of the Walnut Creek Sun for the past six years, was named associate editor of The Sun Newspapers this week by publisher Herman Silverman.

Colby will assume the position vacated by Dick Osborn who has accepted a position with the customer relations department of the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

OSBORN LEAVES for his new post after spending 11 years with The Sun.

Colby, who is a member of the Walnut Creek Junior Chamber of Commerce, is also president of the Diablo Writers Workshop.

He has worked for the Fremont Guide and Tribune, Fromont, Nebraska; the Paso Robles Press, and the Sacramento Union. He has eight and a half years newspaper experience.

VIC RUGH, a newspaper and radio man of long experience will assume Colby's former post as editor of the Walnut Creek Sun. Rugh comes to The Sun from radio station KIDD, Monterey, where he was news director.

He has also worked on the Daily Pajaronian on the Monterey Peninsula. He started in the newspaper business when he served as sports editor of the Manila Bulletin in 1926.

Local Boy on Post Cover

If the face on the cover of the current Saturday Evening Post looks familiar—it belongs to Donald Aurel Landsfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aurel Landsfeld, 230 Hall Drive, Orinda.

Don's story is featured in the first of a series of articles by Mary Conway Kohler and Andre Fontaine entitled "We Waste a Million Kids a Year."

Graduating from Miramonte next spring, Don wants to be an automobile mechanic. "We have just a wood shop and auto shop, and even those wese started only last September. So for three years, I've had absolutely no vocational training," he said.

A tall, slender, deep-voiced boy who will be 19 in April, Don is learning what he can about auto mechanics by tearing apart and reassembling the motor of the 1940 Ford he bought for $75 last fall. "An older car is harder to work on and I guess I learn more about cars from it," he said.

Don's father is an electrician with the Shell Development Company. An only child, Don plans to work in a local gas station to learn his trade after graduation. If he goes into military service and perhaps on to trade school "I use up two to four more years learning something I could just as well have learned in high school."

According to the Post, "Don is a well-adjusted boy who is confident that he can live in the world without a college degree."

129 Witnesses Appear at Hearing; McCunn Doesn't

District Superintendent Drum-up of two representatives each mond J. McCunn was continuing his "off again, on again" approach to testifying before a panel conducting hearings on Contra Costa Junior College District's internal problems when The Sun went to press last night.

After having indicated to Dr. James Gorson on Tuesday that he might change his mind and appear before the probers, McCunn reversed his decision Wednesday and re-asserted that he would refuse to participate.

In spite of the superintendent's hesitancy, 129 other persons from all walks of life appeared before the panel. There was no breakdown as to the occupations of the participants in the early report but directors of the hearing said teachers, board members, industrialists and parents of students had all been quizzed.

F. B. Mansell, field representative for the California Teachers Association, commended all of the witnesses who have appeared at the probe.

"WE HAVE never had such splendid cooperation in any other hearing," he asserted. "Everyone of the 129 interviewees has shown up and all of them have been on time. I think much of this is due to the honest reporting of The Sun in covering the story."

As for McCunn's failure to appear, Mansell said the panel was still hopeful that he would change his mind and would remain beyond the deadline to accommodate the superintendent if he should express a change of heart.

Thousands of feet of taped testimony has been recorded by the two sets of interviewers. The massive amount of information necessitated obtaining another recorder and an additional supply of tape.

THE TAPE is only being used for accuracy, Mansell pointed out. When it has been copied off and the reports are complete, all the tape will be erased to prevent its use from embarrassing any of the participants in the hearing.

The board of inquiry is made

Kendel Chance Is Promoted at Bank of America

The promotion of Kendel A. Chance of Orinda to vice-president at Bank of America's head office in San Francisco was announced last week by the bank's president, S. Clark Beise.

Chance, who lives at 4 Camino Sobrante, has been an assistant vice-president for the past two and one-half years and has been assigned to the cashier's department since 1952.

He began his banking career in 1936, serving in San Francisco branches until 1943 when he left for a two-year tour in the Air Force.

Resuming his career in 1945, he was assigned to the inspection department and, four years later, was appointed an inspector, the title he held until transferring to the cashier's department.

The new vice-president is a graduate of the University of California Bank Management course which he completed on a Bank of America-A. P. Giannini Foundation scholarship.

$8-10 Million Plan Announced by Rheem

Plans for an eight to 10 million dollar a year residential building program in Contra Costa county were revealed recently by the Rheem California Land Company.

ANNOUNCING their company's expansion into the home building field, Richard S. Rheem, president, and Donald L. Rheem, chairman, said that they have acquired the entire real estate holdings and building operations of the Harold W. Smith Company of Rheem. Smith has been named vice-president of the Rheem company, and will be in charge of the company's home building program.

The new venture, according to Richard Rheem, is not just a move toward diversification but is integral to the company's entire program for development of Rheem into one of the Bay Area's finest residential communities.

"We are very happy to be able to make this new affiliation with Mr. Smith," Rheem said. "He already has built some 300 homes in this area, and under his experienced direction we expect to triple his present million dollar a year construction output. We are gearing our program to an average of 100 or more homes a year, in the $27,500 to $50,000 range. We also anticipate a similar construction schedule in multiple units.

"OUR COMPANY was organized last December to consolidate and develop our residential, business, oil and gas properties. Our expansion into the home building field is prompted by the tremendous residential growth potential of the East Bay area, and particularly that part of it in which Rheem is the hub. We feel that we can best provide both the quantity and quality of homes demanded by this growth if we undertake the basic building operations ourselves."

Rheem pointed out that his company's entry into the home building field would supplement, not replace, its current association with a select group of builders including Simonds and Stringer, Inc., Ward-Gilman, Pettibone Properties, Inc., and Gordon French Construction Company. It is anticipated, he said, that high quality residential construction by these builders in Rheem will reach an annual rate of one and one half to two million dollars.

She's a Beauty, Creative

By HELEN SCHARMER

Sunlight filtered in through leaded glass, the gleam of silver and pewter, the deep, rich colors of old books and the warmth of a portrait hung over the mantel, these are the impressions one gets on entering the Oliver Gardener home on La Plaza, Orinda.

Our hostess, Theodosia Gardener (Teddy) greeted us wearing a Mexican serape over her black costume. This and other valuable Mexican treasures were brought back by the Gardeners from a recent trip south of the border.

There is a lot in the magazines and papers these days about the restless, questing housewife — Teddy Gardener is the antithesis of such a woman.

BEAUTIFUL, creative, she lives her life with awareness and vitality as her companions.

Oliver Gardener is an engineer. They live in their hillside home in Orinda with their two children, Andrea and Justin.

Mrs. Gardener grew up in Atlanta, Georgia and, she says, "I have been painting ever since I could hold a brush in my hand."

Her social life included the usual whirl of the southern belle and friendships with artists of the South.

Her mother is a writer and a friend of the late Margaret Mitchell, author of "Gone With the Wind."

FEELING THAT the children needed broader experience, the parents brought their children to the West Coast where Teddy later studied at Scripps College. She also has studied at the High Museum of Art in Atlanta, the Ecole de Beaux Arts in Geneva, Switzerland and has painted at La Grande Chaumiere in Paris.

She has exhibited at the Richmond Art Museum, in Edinburgh, Scotland, in a traveling exhibit of religious art and just recently had a one-man show at the Lafayette Savings and Loan Company in cooperation with Valley Art Center.

The Gardener home is Spanish in architecture and furnished with pieces collected during their travels both here and abroad.

VALLEY ART CENTER in Lafayette has in its rental gallery paintings by Theodosia Gardener of Orinda. Shown here is the artist in her studio at her home, 15 La Plaza. In private life she is Mrs. Oliver Gardener, wife of an engineer and mother of two young children. Sun photo by Bob Yost.

Prominently displayed is a deep red Mexican chest, lavishly inlaid with mirrors. Garden sculpture includes primitive Indian figures and pieces from Oaxaca in the rare black clay of that region.

PARTICULARLY delightful is the master bedroom. Mrs. Gardener was unable to find the colors she wanted for window hangings and spread — deep mauves and blues with warm orange and red — so she used textile paints for her bedspread design and carried out the same stylized floral motif in window screens of needlework on framed linen.

Evidence of Oliver Gardener's engineering skill is everywhere. We walked up the flagstone path through the hillside garden to Teddy's studio which he designed and built. The stairs are mosaic pebbles casually laid in concrete framed in circlets of iron. The studio itself has a cathedral ceiling. One wall is paned in leaded glass from floor to ceiling.

The artist's paintings range from romantic impressionist works to more conventional expressions. One of the most powerful of her paintings is a religious one—a suppliant done in rich sepia tones.

ANOTHER — a duck done on rice paper — was delicately precise. "Every once in a while I have to remind myself that I am a craftsman," the artist explained.

Painting is not this Orinda resident's only interest, however. As we talked, we touched on such divers subjects as the Women for Peace, the Orinda schools, the racial problems of the deep south and the works of the late Albert Camus.

Mrs. Putnam Appointed Sun Society Editor

Mrs. Jane Putnam of 124 Devin Drive, Moraga, has been appointed society editor of the Sun Newspapers, according to Publisher Herman Silverman.

Mrs. Putnam will also assist in overall coverage of general news in Orinda and Moraga, said Silverman.

She formerly did reporting and feature writing for the Montclarion in Oakland and the LaMorindan in Orinda.

Mrs. Putnam was editor of the Oakland High School newspaper and also the yearbook, and graduated from the University of California with a major in journalism.

She has also written articles and short stories published in several magazines and Sunday supplements and has experience in advertising.

The Dam Road Has Gotta Go --Says Lady

The Dam Road is in the spotlight again.

An El Cerrito woman suggests that the name of the road between Orinda and El Sobrante be changed to John Glenn Drive.

Long the target of poor puns, the Dam Road was so named because it passes San Pablo Dam—not for the reasons some commuters suggest.

In a letter to the Board of Supervisors, Mrs. Edmund S. Read, 2625 Mira Vista Drive, El Cerrito, says that by changing the name of the Dam Road to John Glen Drive, we would not only honor the first American in orbit but would also "do away with the completely inappropriate name this road now carries. All of us are aware of the derogatory comments and unfavorable publicity accompanying nearly every reference to the Dam Road."

Community Church Has Lenten Series

The Orinda Community Church, 10 Irwin Way, will begin a Lenten discussion series on Tuesday evenings beginning March 13 through April 10. Basis of discussion will be Samuel H. Miller's book, "The Great Realities."

County Empoyees Seek 28-Cent Raise

County employees are entitled to a 28½ cents an hour pay increase beginning July 1, the membership of Local 1675, the Contra Costa County Employees Association, decided at their February 28 meeting.

Local 1675 manager Edgar K. Irwin stated that the increase was based on salary trends since July 1, 1960, the date of the last general increase for county employees.

"On the basis of our studies covering private and public employment wage increases, it is very obvious that county employees have fallen far behind their counterparts in industry and in many public jurisdictions," Irwin said.

"WE KNOW that the citizens of Contra Costa County and the board of supervisors believe that county employees deserve to be paid prevailing wages for the work they do. The increase which has been recommended by the membership will tend to re-establish county salaries on a par with those with which they are compared in private and public work."

Irwin stated that the membership reviewed also the analysis of its salary committee on supplemental wage needs and recommended the following as reasonable and desirable:

Time-and-a--half for overtime. Irwin stated that payment of time-and-a-half or more is the universal practice in private industry. He indicated that the salary committee felt that not only was this amount justified on the basis of prevailing practice, but that the higher amount would discourage possible excessive use of overtime because of the extra hourly cost involved.

Higher pay for work in a higher position. Irwin explained that many times employees are requested to work long periods in jobs which have higher salary rates than the employees are being paid. The membership believes that is is essentially unfair to require the higher use of employee skills without proper compensation. While recognizing that the task of installing a program to accomplish this goal would require several changes in the county's personnel practices, Irwin stated that he felt sure that cooperative effort between the county management and the employee unions would make the task entirely feasible.

Full payment of the health insurance premium for employees and their dependents. The county presently pays three-fourths of the health insurance premium for its employees. Local 1675's membership determined that full payment of the premium for employees and dependents would conform more nearly with the practices in private industry.

Irwin stated that the overwhelming majority of union contracts provide payment of premiums for both the employees and their dependents.

Half pay for unused sick leave upon termination. Irwin stated that many authorities in the personnel field have recommended part payment for unused sick leave for terminating employees as the best means for reducing the amount of sick leave being used. Irwin indicated that while the use of sick leave by county employees compares favorably with that of other public jurisdictions and private industry, nevertheless improvements can be made.

HE ALSO pointed out that the reduction in the use of sick leave would not only save the direct cost of the employees' salary, but would also reduce other costs that accrue when employees are away from their jobs, including the cost of needed replacements.

Friday off when a holiday falls on Saturday. Irwin stated that most private industries now offer this benefit to all of their employees. The Local 1675 membership considered the desirability for a shorter basic work week as a means of meeting part of the problem of the massive unemployment resulting from automation.

It was generally felt, Irwin stated, that a shorter work week will eventually have to be adopted throughout the economy. However, because of the complexities inherent in the proposal, the membership voted to defer specific action on the shorter work week for one month.

We live in a beautiful area. Don't litterbug. Let's keep our garden clean.

Retired Officers Plan Meeting

The Retired Officers Association of Contra Costa County will hold an organizational meeting at Mike Lynn's, Orinda, Monday night.

Assembled will be officers of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, the Geodetic Survey, and the U.S. Public Health Service.

Peace will be maintained among the formerly warring elements by club president Captain H. A. "Abe" Lincoln, USN, of Lafayette.

He will be assisted by vice-presidents Lt. Col. C. F. Rundquist, USAF of Walnut Creek; Warrant Officer M. P. Lattin, USCG, Concord.

County Boundaries Now Are Firmly Established

The 23 miles of boundary between Contra Costa and Alameda County have been retraced and re-established by surveyors, and Contra Costa supervisors have approved.

The project resulted in a joint report by Victor Sauer, Contra Costa public works director and road commissioner-surveyor, and Olof Anderson, Alameda County road commissioner-surveyor.

The line was first surveyed in 1856 by H. A. Higley with a joint retracement in 1877 by Luis Castro, Alameda County surveyor and R. M. Jones, Contra Costa County surveyor.

THE NEED for the survey became quite apparent as the area covered by the boundary began to develop rapidly and change its character from rural grazing land to suburban living.

It became increasingly difficult to determine the boundary location as surveyors were unable to find the physical monuments, such as trees, posts, streams and buildings which were reference points in the 1377 survey notes.

The survey was performed with precise instruments that permitted practically perfect measurement. A geodimeter, ure angles. which measures the time it takes light to travel, was used to measure distances.

THE LATEST survey is tied into the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey triangulation stations, based upon the California Coordinate System. This will permit the precise re-establishment of any monuments destroyed or moved in the future.

Sixty-one monuments were set on the boundary line. These will aid future surveyors working in the areas as well as help the county assessor in determining for assessment purposes the amount of property which lies in each county.

'Big League' Effort for YMCA Drive

More than 100 "Y Big Leagurers" attended the member enrollment kick-off banquet, held in the Walnut Creek Methodist Church, March 1.

All 20 teams of the American and National Y Leagues signed their own "player contracts," picked up their "equipment" and listened to Giant head scout Ed Montague tell them how to "go to work."

President Irvin Deutscher told about the future prospects and J. D. Hall, head scout, announced the signing of most of the bonus rookies and predicted that all good players would be in the fold before the season really gets underway.

To date, $4915 has already been pledged.

The first five players to turn in five home runs or hits amounting to $100 or better will receive five gallons of gas from Tom Christy, Signal Service Station at Oak Park and Patterson.

Any person who wishes to pledge or give $25 or more is considered a home run and any person who joins as a $100 'Century Club" sponsor, is a "bases loaded home run."

All players exceeding a 200-point total will be given a new sport shirt through the courtesy of John Tague's Walnut Creek Capwell's store.

the California Junior College Association.

Following the conclusion of testimony last night, each of the panelists will return home and draw up a three-part report which will deal with facts heard in evidence, conclusions drawn and solutions suggested.

THE SEVEN reports will be sent to the four statewide groups which will combine them and return them to the panelists for agreement as to accuracy. The probers then will do any needed editing.

When this is completed the panel will be reassembled to present its full findings to the full commissions of three state associations. These bodies — administrators, teachers and boards — will adopt the reports after final approval.

A careful check of all material will be made by attorneys before copies are mailed out to the junior college teachers' association. This will be the concluding action of the probe.

The dispute came to a head on December 6, touched off by a much-quoted statement supporting the John Birch Society and credited to McCunn.

SUPPORTERS of the superintendent charge his opponents merely want to run the two campuses of the junior college to suit themselves.

In refusing to appear before the investigating body, McCunn said:

"I do not choose to participate because I feel my presence would serve no purpose. . . . Basically, the solving of these problems is the board's responsibility and in my opinion it should not be delegated to a group of organizations with vested interests. No matter what the panel's findings may be, they will not be acceptable to all segments of this personnel of this district."

Earlier, James Williamson, CTA personnel standards executive and consultant to the investigating panel had stated:

"The Personnel Standards Commission has a firm policy that no charge or complaint against any person involved in the problem under study will be considered unless that individual has had an opportunity to explain his side of the issue."

Coll Will Run

Thomas Coll announced this week he will seek re-election to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

Coll, 40, a resident of 1492 Davis Avenue, Concord, has served one term of four years, and this year is chairman of the board.

He is an attorney in Concord and earlier had experience in newspaper advertising sales.

HE AND his wife, Maureen, have four children.

"I intend to campaign on two basic issues," Coll announced.

"First, the fulfillment of the platform I presented to the people when I ran for office four years ago.

"Second, a platform for the next four years with realistic attainable goals aimed at better service for the nowest possible cost.

"The following are a few of the major county developments during the last four years, the majority of which conform to my platform when I initially ran for office," said Coll.

"FLOOD CONTROL: Increased the capacity of the Walnut Creek channel from 6500 to 11,000 cubic feet per second.

"WELFARE: As chairman of the board's welfare committee I supported the district attorney and county welfare director in their crack-down on welfare fraud. Since May 1959 the investigative section developed by the board of supervisors has found over 1600 absent fathers. Collections today amount to over $576,000 per year, almost twice the amount of prior years.

"TAX RATE: maintained a stable basic county tax rate, reducing the rate in two out of three years, yet increasing county services.

"CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS: Libraries have been constructed in Walnut Creek, San Ramon, San Pablo, with a central library in Pleasant Hill. New leases for commercial use and recreation have been negotiated at Buchanan Field, the County Airport.

"SCHOOL WALKWAY PROGRAM: Revitalized walkway program for school children by re-defining the county policy and appropriating funds for this purpose.

"ROADS: Constructed Taylor Boulevard to serve Central Contra Costa County — aided the City of Martinez in widening Alhambra Avenue—aided the City of Concord in widening East Street and Meadow Lane.

"INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT: Made a thorough study of the county development program which resulted in a closer relationship between the board of supervisors, county department heads and the development association.

"COURT FEES: Changed the fee collection system for service of court process so the money is now collected by the county.

"COUNTY ASSESSMENTS: Added personnel to the assessor's office to speed up the county re-assessment process — to equalize the county tax burden."

Coll said, "Our greatest challenge lies ahead—with California shortly becoming the most populous state in the Union — more jobs are needed — more industry is needed to broaden our tax base.

"We have started a new approach in seeking industrial development and this must be closely watched to adjust the program when the need arises.

"Local flood problems must be solved. Park and recreation facilities must be provided and our road system between our two major industrial sites must be widened to take care of today's and tomorrow's traffic loads.

"I feel I am well qualified, through governmental experience on the city and county levels, to provide the leadership which is necessary to meet these future problems," Coll added.

Want Ads Are Free for Subscribing Boys, Girls

Boys and girls at least 14 years old can place free want ads in The Sun if they visit The Sun office today, indicating they are already members of Sun-subscribing families!

Children desiring to sell some of their toys or other articles may place a free want ad in The Sun if their parents are subscribers to one of the four Sun subscription newspapers.

The free want ad, up to 14 words, will run in the subscription papers and the 50,000-circulation Sun Shopping News.

There are some 13,000 families subscribing to The Sun, most of them with one or more children.

The boy or girl to place the ad must appear in person in The Sun office at either 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, or 1001 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette.

The free want ad will run next Wednesday and Friday.

"This is just a small reason for being a Sun subscriber. The big reason is the up-to-date coverage of local events and interesting features about your community neighbors," said Herman Silverman, Sun publisher.

Women's Peace Council in Vigil

Women of the Diablo Women's Peace Council and the East Bay Women for Peace held a silent vigil at the Livermore A.E.C. Laboratories Wednesday, to protest the testing of weapons in the atmosphere "by any nation."

The small group of women, many accompanied by their children, maintained their vigil from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. outside the main gate of the laboratory.

At the end of their vigil the women presented a statement to the director of the laboratory, Dr. John F. Foster, which said in part, "We feel that nuclear testing by any nation is a crime against humanity.

"By accelerating the arms race and thereby increasing world tensions, testing makes a nuclear war an ever greater possibility . . ."

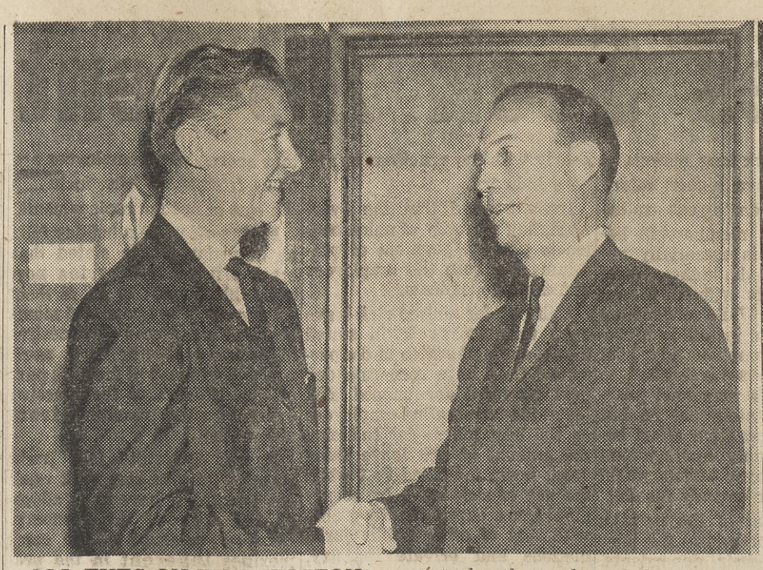
Music Teachers Plan Recital

Students of the members of County Music Teachers' Association will hold a recital Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Stanley School, Lafayette.

The public is invited.

Teachers will hold a panel discussion Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Nut Bowl, 3185 North Main Street, Pleasant Hill.

Topic will be the Romantic Period of Music History.



ALL EYES ON WASHINGTON seems to be the order of the day in the picture at left as Charles R. Weidner of Pleasant Hill, right, received congratulations on his selection as Democratic candidate for Congress from the 14th District. The warm hand-shake and smiling acclaim comes from State Senator Richard Richards who is also seeking a trip to the nation's capitol by running for the U.S. Senate on the Democratic ticket. Concern of the delegates is reflected in the faces of those pictured at the right a segment of the district's Democratic club members pledged to Hal Mutnik, runner-up to Weidner in the balloting. The winning candidate got more than double the vote of his closest opponent on the first ballot and then the third nominee, Dr. Joel Fort, turned over his backing to increase the lead.

Television Personality To Boost Girl

Television personalities will be demonstrated by Contra Costa girls during the county finals of Channel 13's "KO-VR Girl" contest, to be held April 17 in the Broadway Shopping Center, in front of Lucky Store.

The big event will be held in Broadway in conjunction with "A Day at the Fair," a part of Broadway's Easter Parade, to run April 5-21.

THE "KO-VR Girl" county winner picked in Broadway will be eligible to compete in the "KO-VR Girl" pageant to be held later, and televised by Channel 13 in Sacramento. Details will be announced soon.

The winner will receive a 13-week television contract, and will appear on National Broadcasting Company television shows.

SHE WILL appear on Queen for a Day and the new Tennessee Ernie Show. An all-expense paid trip to Lake Tahoe is included.

The "KO-VR Girl" contest is tailored for television. Judging will be done on a television screen where personality and ability to speak will count heavily in the scoring.

Suffragettes More Than A Dream As Demos Meet

By VIC RUGH

The spirits of Carrie Chapman Catt, Jane Addams and all the others who promulgated the idea of women's suffrage, must have gone into gleeful orbit if they got a ghost-eye view of the Democratic Clubs district meeting held Saturday at the Concord Inn.

There were no women nominees, that's true. But all three candidates for the party nomination for congress had their wives in tow (or was it vice-versa) as they did everything from crashing the caucuses to hypnotizing the individual delegates.

You can be sure of this: a beautiful woman will bring on political hypnosis more quickly than a black cigar and a glass of Scotch. Combine them and you have a truly lethal weapon that was evident in the lounge of the inn.

An attractive blonde — Pat Silva — with a cameraman at her beck and call—supervised the publicity angles of the meeting.

Still another member of the fair sex, Marianne Weigel, was the chairman. Females dominated the meeting place, handing out literature for their favored candidates or trying to persuade some undecided delegate how to cast his ballot.

Being feminine they were often outspoken. When word came that President Kennedy had announced plans for nuclear testing in the atmosphere, members of the Women for Peace movement sent up such a cry of anguish and despair that they almost halted the convention session.

Some of the speech makers found it hard to do a selling job while distaff delegates were muttering disparaging remarks about the party's leader— JFK.

Actually, the Concord conclave was a pint-sized facsimile of the Democratic convention in Los Angeles with one exception—it didn't go in the hole several million dollars. But it had all the hoopla.

There were placards carried by the delegates; ribbons, badges and caps endorsing favorite sons; and a four-piece band which blared forth with "The Saints Come Marching In" when winning candidate Chuck Weidner, was nominated.

The musicians (who had held a brief rehearsal in the men's room after providing the luncheon melodies) then presented their version of "Happy Days Are Here Again." It sounded like it had been maliciously arranged by a tone-deaf Republican.

All in all it was a great political parley. Nobody lost their temper. No one lost their way home. And the only thing reported at the inn's lost and found department was a bit of dainty feminine feminery—which could well have been cast aside in the height of battle.

After all, it was ladies' day in the Democratic ranks at Concord Saturday.

Demos Pick Weidner In House Race

Charles R. Weidner of Pleasant Hill on Saturday was given the endorsement of 26 Contra Costa Democratic Clubs to run as the party's candidate in the 14th district congressional race. He won out over Harold Mutnik of Lafayette and Dr. Joel Fort of El Cerrito.

Endorsement came following a noisy and spirited conclave at the Concord Inn — with lots of excitement, rumors and claims—but little drama.

Weidner supporters tried to "jazz up" the convention with a hired band serenading the conventioners but political experts said there was no question after mornings meetings that he would get the official sanction.

When the official tally was completed late in the afternoon it showed: Weidner, 346 votes; Mutnick, 173, and Fort, 96. Total vote cast 615.

STANDOUT NOMINATING speech of the day came when Walnut Creek city councilman, Doug Page, made the opening oration on behalf of Weidner. He not only harpooned the Republican incumbent. Representative John F. Baldwin, but did such a pungent job of belittling his actions in congress that he drew as much applause as any of the candidates when they spoke later.

Somebody jumped the gun when the nominating speeches were concluded and passed out the ballots to the various delegations. About half of them had polled the membership and marked the ballots before the candidates made their actual policy statements.

Even before the voting began, Dr. Fort told representatives of The Sun that it looked like a "cinch" for Weidner. The El Cerrito physician admitted he had hoped to be a compromise candidate if Weidner and Mutnick had deadlocked on early ballots.

THERE WAS NO deadlock. Weidner captured 56 per cent of the votes on the first ballot and Dr. Fort then withdrew, throwing his strength to the winner. This boosted Weidner well above the 70 per cent mark.

Both incumbent assemblymen, John T. Knox of the Tenth District, and Jerome Waldie of the Eleventh District, were given unanimous approval of the convention delegates. Neither assemblyman is opposed for the Democratic nomination. State Senator, George J. Miller, whose term still has two years to go, served as chairman of the conference.

TWO OF THE party's state leaders were on hand. Attorney General Stanley Mosk spoke to the delegates and so did State Senator Richard Richards who is the unopposed Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate seat now held by Republican Thomas Kuchel.

The party faithful managed to get themselves "off the hook" on the redhot issue of junior college superintendent Drummond J. McCunn. They approved a series of other resolutions sent down by leaders at the state meeting and then announced there was not enough time or enough delegates remaining to vote on the McCunn matter. The resolution had recommended his being fired.

Morrison Quits Taxpayers' Ass'n

Harry L. Morrison has resigned as executive director of the County Taxpayers' Association, it was announced.

Morrison said he will now devote more time to academic and other pursuits, but will continue in his job until October 1.

The association directors favor keeping Morrison on a consultant basis after October 1.

Mrs. McKnight Is Anti-Commie Chairman

Mrs. Grace McKnight of Orinda has been named county chairman of the Californians Committee to Combat Communism, according to Delbert Kirkpatrick, state chairman.

The committee is collecting 500,000 valid signatures on an initiative petition to place on the November ballot a proposed constitutional amendment which, if adopted by the voters, will "greatly hamper subversive activities within the State of California," said Kirkpatrick.

Red Cross Looking for 'Balance-of-Need' Funds

Traditional March campaigning for "balance-of-need" funds has been launched by the Walnut Creek chapter of the American Red Cross along with eight other chapters of the Bay Area Council.

With a salute to thousands of Red Cross youth members from elementary through college age, Robert L. Schroder, chairman of the Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter and Mortimer Fleishhacker, Jr., chairman of the board of the United Bay Area Crusade made a joint appeal for support.

"We are gratified," Schroder said, "that Red Cross this year received more from United Crusade than ever before, a total of $1,972,539 or 82.5 per cent of Bay Area Red Cross budgetary needs. Expanding Bay Area population requires expanding Red Cross service so Red Cross is appealing to its long standing friends who prefer to renew their memberships directly and the estimated 35 per cent of Bay Area residents who did not contribute through United Crusade, to help meet Red Cross needs."

THEME OF THIS YEAR'S drive is "Youth Grows Big Through Red Cross." The expanding role of young people in traditional Red Cross volunteer services and their growing voice in program planning for the future will be highlighted throughout March in the press, on radio, and television.

Contra Costa student members have given more volunteer hours to Red Cross this past year than ever before. In the 1961 Red Cross summer swim program, alone, student volunteers broke all existing records in the national Red Cross for a volunteer pre-registered swim program. More than 400 Red Cross - trained teen - age swim safety experts gave 10,000 hours of their vacation time so that some 4000 youngsters could learn to swim safely.

Other youth served as receptionists, assistants to laboratory technicians, Gray Ladies, and in local hospitals. Others drive the crippled, sick, elderly, blind and others to therapy centers, hospitals, and recreation centers. Others help out in many adult services, and have many community and overseas projects.

A SPECIAL SALUTE will be given to youth in Red Cross at a special Red Cross Exhibition to be held at the main branch of the San Francisco City Library Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 1 to 5 p.m. starting March 9. Mementoes from Red Cross history as well as displays of Red Cross services locally, nationally and internationall will be shown.

Those wishing to renew their memberships directly with Red Cross should mail their contributions to their nearest Red Cross chapter. In Contra Costa County the letter should be addressed, "Greater Mt. Diablo Chapter, American Red Cross, 2121 Ygnacio Valley Road, Walnut Creek, California."

The World on a String . . .

OH, to be in Ireland now that Yoyos are here! I don't know about you, but I spend all my time ducking that darn disc at the end of a swinging string.

W/the rainy weather, where else is a fella to practice but right under MY nose? Come to think of it, there's a new plastic kite in the corner so perhaps the Season Of Boys is about to change.

Who needs a calendar w/a Boy in the House? Just look in his pockets—or at his shoes & you've got your answer, what time of year it is!

IT DOESN'T matter how much it may storm: Not as long as Radio KRAK keeps that Frank Sinatra Marathon going, I've got a good song to keep me warm. After 154 hours of Mr. Swoon himself they've added Ella Fitzgerald, a delightful addition. Musically speaking, the listening is easy. We turn on the radio, rack up the memories all the old ones bring & when everybody went off to bed, there we were (just ME!) dancing all to ourselves. Hate to turn it off. A soothing change after too long w/KABL which is getting a bit too cloying & needs a new record library . . . & script-writer!

JUST FOR KICKS, does anyone remember the poetically lyrical "When You Awake" introduced by Sinatra on radio & abruptly removed during the ASCAP-BMI fracas during the early 40's? Never heard it played since . . . Just wondering!

OUR LOSS, Lafayette's gain, the Walt Fribergs who are practically a landmark around here, Walt w/his real estate office, Pat w/her Country Club hairdresser shop (both businesses housed in the Orinda Village bldgs. that will come tumbling down shortly for the new (Ohhhhh!) Richfield station!)

Pat didn't lose a day w/her customers under the drier & opened in Lafayette on So. Thompson Rd. the day after closing shop here. The family has bought an older home in Lafayette. Look for the door at 1004 & come in & view Pat's new Victorian pink & white decor . . . Same name. Country Club Hairdresser.

IT DIDN'T take vandals long to get at that building & did you know Wright's Village Pharm. wuz robbed twice within a week. All this points up the NEED for more patrol & police protection.

GET WELL CARDS to the two Trudys, both recently hospitalized & both from the same block of Draeger Drive. Trudy Hoover & Trudy Martin.

Trudy Martin's husband Hank, who is 2nd in charge (a Commander!) at Alameda NAS has been promoted, at home anyway, to 1st in charge. The Martins have SEVEN kids & Dad's got them keeping everything Shipshape, all squared away!

SHOPPING WITH FATHER is more fun, esp. when it's Guy Catterton w/his children in tow & loading up the Lucky's cart w/eskimo pies, orange bars, potato chips, tootsie rolls, cookies & more cookies! The kind of a haul the kids prefer!

Country Clothesline: Can Spring be far behind when Pat White looks positively fetching in a shocking pink petaled chapeau & a matching pink coat?

A Russian Priest w/Irish Brogue . . .

THE SANTA MARIA Women's Club have got themselves a fine speaker for next Monday night & are exteding an invite to all parish members & their guests.

Listen!

At a reception for Western Diplomats in Moscow last year, Communist party Secty. Nikita Khrushchev was asked who in the Western World did he consider most dangerous to his regime. After he bitterly named a list of prominent enemies, he paused, added one more name explosively to the list—Andrei Urusov, a name unknown to his audience.

The following day the Embassy checked to learn that Urusov, the son of a Tartar Prince liquidated by the Reds in the Revolution of 1917, was now Reverend Andrei Urusov, S.J., Ph.D., Director of the Catholic Russian Center in S.F.

REV. URUSOV, a giant of a man in personality as well as stature, speaks w/a Russian accent to which a bit of the Irish brogue has been added since he learned to speak English in Ireland. After the loss of his parents, the young Russian nobleman & his younger brother were sheltered by a peasant nurse, eventually escaped to Europe where he lived as a refugee in Paris & Belgium. He became a Catholic at the age of 21, studied at the Russian Seminary in Rome & at the start of World War II was ordained a Priest of the Byzantine Rites.

FATHER URUSOV'S lecture will be "Human Explanations of Communism," one of his seventeen lectures that have been heard widely & lauded well. It is a privilege to have him as a speaker & a record audience is expected.

Getting To Know You: Even the stance was the same on Chris Maggini who came costumed as Yul Brynner's version of The King of Siam to the Orinda Art Center's Masque Ball last Friday night at the Country Club.

A FOOL FOR YUL . . . Chris copped First Prize & according to wife Pat (she came as a Rose Bush) he even shaved off the last remaining fuzz on his head to give it the full treatment. If all men looked as good as Chris, bare of hair, they'd never concern themselves w/baldness. In fact, Chris looked in costume more Yul than Yul himself. Some guests told us they felt inclined to bow as they passed near him . . .

More at the Masquerade were Helen & Ivr Moore as Martha & George Washington . . . A standout party of four tall couples were dressed as a basketball team, "The Orinda Obsoletes" . . . & Marge Douglass costumed in diaphanous chiffon as Diane, The Huntress & carrying her little shaggy white dog! Her husband Bill as Satyr in black fur & headgear & a flesh leotard winning a prize, too. Chris' Siamese garb of gold silk & his gorgeous necklace, by the way, were fashioned for her father by his daughter.

SUNDAY SIGHTEM: Alysone deLaveaga reading the funnies to her children in the car while Ned checked the early morning action at his Standard station . . .

Weekday Sightems: Kay Dodge all dressed up in her basic black mit pearls, the better for a big evening at Trader Vic's for dinner . . . Kay Marshall lost in the books at the library . . . Dot Bray expecting in May, her 4th . . . & Claire Ward, working in the Village's "Elite Fabrics" shop (down under Edy's) looking as crisp & fresh as the bolt of fabric she was showing.

SITTING PRETTY: Nancy Anzilotti's darling daughters (she has FIVE) all looking That Cute from the back window of the family wagon . . . The first dollar made by the new Jo-Evs Variety Store at Rheem has been given an honorary place on the cash register—inscribed "Good Luck from T-Bones . . ."

Did you see this week's SatEvePost featuring a full-cover portrait of Moragan Donald Lansgsfield? The accompanying article "We Waste A Million Kids A Year" points up the crucial need for more vocational training in high schools.

One product of our town & time is now stashed off in a state mental hospital & all the boy needed back then, & when, was some genuine interest, training & direction.

CONTEMPORARY CARTOON: The Very Contemporary couples headed in the direction of the very contemporary new home of the Very Contemporary Clark Wallaces for their recent house-warming on Loma Vista Drive. He is son of Realtor Ed Wallace.

BUSY AFS-ers Mike Eaton & Karen Olsen are eager & joyous to relate their experiences in Italy & Germany. To an AFS adult group last week, Mike told of his semester in Milan accompanying the talk w/beautiful color slides enhanced by his prolific English & Italian vocabulaire. During Exchange—exchange week recently Elisabeth Davidson & Jean-Michel Secre went to live w/families in Marysville & Yuba respectively. Now back w/the Jones & Mann families till June 19 when they depart for home by bus to New York.

Welcome Wagon Hears County Park Director

"Thirteen hundred people per month are moving into Contra Costa County, many of them because of the great natural beauty to be found here," Duane Mattison, county park director, said at the spring luncheon meeting of the Orinda-Moraga Welcome Wagon Club, held at Mike Lynn's restaurant last Thursday.

Mattison described the county park program, showing color slides of nine areas that can be developed as park sites. "The time to plan and save some of these areas is now," Mattison said.

Preceding Mattison to the podium was Lyman Dyson, resident manager of the investment firm of Reynolds and Company of Oakland. Dyson gave a brief talk on investment clubs.

Welcome Wagon Club is for all recipients of Welcome Wagon calls, to help those who are new in the area to get acquainted through informal gatherings, with larger meetings scheduled from time to time. The club takes an active interest in the civic, social and moral welfare of the community. This has been the masis of Welcome Wagon philosophy since it began 34 years ago.

Cub Pack 57 Meets at Miramonte

Cub Scout Pack 57, headed by Packmaster Bob McKim and aided by Assistant Packmaster Ronald Hamm and chairman of the pack committee, Martin Stiles, held their annual Blue and Gold Dinner at Miramonte High School recently.

The pack had a presidential theme for the dinner and each den decorated their own table accordingly. Prize for the best table went to den 10 under the direction of Den Mother Mrs. Harry Anderson. Judging was done by Rev. John Dodson of the Orinda Methodist Church, the sponsor for pack 57.

Reverend Dodson announced that a prize will be given by the Orinda Methodist Church for the den and the den mother who accomplishes the most both scoutwise and communitywise during a certain period.

Vic Bottari, the athletic director for pack 57 has stimulated some real talent along the cub scouts at his weekly basketball games Saturday mornings at Miramonte gym.

Russian Jesuit With Brogue to Address Club

A man born of Russian nobility, whose parents were killed by the Soviet regime, who lived the life of a refugee in Belgium and Paris, who studied in Rome and later came to the United States as a Jesuit priest will be the most distinguished speaker at next Monday evening's open meeting of the Santa Maria Women's Club.

REVEREND Andrei Urusov, S.J., Ph.D., now director of the Catholic Russian Center in San Francisco, will lecture on "Human Explanations of Communism" in the parish hall at 8 p.m.

According to Mrs. Phil Reynolds, program chairman, an invitation has been extended to all parish members as well as to their friends to come and hear the well known and widely traveled Jesuit speak at the first meeting of the Lenten season.

According to the descriptive literature concerned with the background of Reverend Urusov, it was his name that was added in a furious outburst by Nikita Khrushchev last year at a reception for Western diplomats in Moscow when the Communist Party's secretary was asked to name those in the Western world whom he considered most dangerous to his Soviet regime. After listing a score of prominent enemies, Khrushchev bitterly blurted out one name, that of Andrei Urusov, a name unknown at that time to his audience.

THE FOLLOWING day, a check by the embassy revealed that Urusov was the son of a Tartar prince of an ancient noble family name who was liquidated by the Reds during the revolution of 1917. Following Urusov's escape to Europe, the young Russian lived the life of a refugee in Beligum and Paris, became a catholic at the age of 21 and following studies at the Russian Seminary in Rome, was ordained a priest in the Russian Byzantine Rites at the start of World War II. The man the Kremlin fears is a Russian priest with an Irish brogue because he learned to speak English while living in Ireland.

Coffee will be served at the close of the lecture, announces president Mrs. Robert Rushforth who anticipates a record audience.

Exchange students coming here for the annual "swap" week were Helmut Jordan of Germany who used the guest towels at the H. A. Gunns & Anna Bolin of Lapland who enjoyed a week w/the James Lindsays. The way the exchange works, an ASF-er of the city goes to a small town—or vice-versa—during that week affording him then a more complete look at Life in the U.S.

YOUNG WOMEN who have a notion for Nursing will be welcome guests at a Tea to be hostessed by the County Medical Women's Auxiliary at the Concord Inn, 1601 Willow Pass Road on April 10 from 2-4. Ex-County Administrator To Head Parks Campaign

Desmond Teeter, former county administrator and county auditor-controller, has been named general chairman of the "Citizens' Committee of 500 for Park Bonds."

Teeter retired as county administrator in January, 1959, after 30 years of county service. He will announce his campaign committee soon. He is an El Cerrito resident.

The citizens will campaign for passage of the proposed $7,500,000 bond issue for acquisition and development of nine county park sites.

THE ISSUE, requiring a two-thirds majority, will go on the June primary election ballot.

Board Chairman Thomas Coll said, "Mr. Teeter started the ball rolling for more parks four or five years ago when he initiated the move to acquire property in the Briones Valley from the East Bay Municipal Utility District for Briones Park.

"Under the program which the board is submitting to the voters for approval, we will augment the proposed park land in Briones Valley and convert it into one of the most magnificent public recreational areas in Northern California.

"We also plan eight other parks, well spaced geographically, to take care of our increasing need for public recreation."

Teeter will work with the Board of Supervisors' Parks Committee consisting of Supervisor J. P. Kenny, chairman, and Supervisor J. S. Silva, with Joseph H. Clark, Cr., of Pleasant Hill and Pittsburg, Park Director Duane Mattison, Public Works Director Victor W. Sauer, and others.

THE CONTRA Costa Development Association has also been asked by the board of supervisors to lend assistance to the educational program.

He is a director of the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association and is active in other organizations.

Golf vs. Geese

Geese and golf just don't mix!

This fact was made clear in Contra Costa Superior Court by William C. Ortland, 530 Moraga Road, Moraga, his wife, Alicia and their son, Leo.

Ortland, who raises Canadian geese in his spare time, filed suit against the Carroll Country Club who operate a nine-hole golf course adjacent to the Ortland home.

Ortland complained that one misguided golf ball killed a prize honker. There has also been damage to his house roof and shattered windows; dented fenders and near-misses to people, he says.

To make matters worse, he alleges that golfers even have the fall to climb his fence in search of their lost balls.

Through attorney Stanley Pedder of Lafayette, the Ortlands have asked the court for an injunction ordering the club and its members to stop trespassing and using the property as a course obstacle. They are seeking $3500 damages.

This includes the loss of the goose.

SPECTATORS watched the joint drill of Orinda and Moraga fire departments practice fire fighting techniques last Sunday. Chief Alfred J. Baitx of the Moraga department warns spectators not to stand too close to the blaze.

DOWN WENT one of the oldest houses in the area to make room for a proposed shopping center by the Rheem Land Development Company. Donald L. Rheem donated the structure to aid the Contra Costa Junior College District fire training program.

Firemen! Raze That House!

There was a house warming in Moraga last Sunday at 10 a.m.

As part of the Contra Costa Junior College District fire training program, an old house at 440 Moraga Road was burned to the ground. Approximately 40 firemen of the Moraga and Orinda fire departments jointly "fought" the blaze.

The exercise was conducted by fire training coordinator Ward L. Cockerton of the CCJCD. The purpose of such drills, according to Cockerton, is so that firemen can gain practical experience and training through the medium of building disposal by burning.

The house was donated for this purpose by Donald L. Rheem, chairman of the Rheem,California Land Company who plan to use the property as part of a large shopping center.

The Orinda firemen were under the direction of Captain John Huff.

Chief Alfred J. Baitx, of the Moraga Fire Department, hosts for the drill, said, "On the job training is very beneficial in keeping up with the latest fire fighting techniques as they develop."

The prime objective of the operation was to use a minimum amount of water in an experiment to avoid excessive water damage in extinguishing fires.

Puzzled passersby had some moments of doubt as to the efficiency of the departments when they saw the firemen hosing trees and surrounding areas avoiding the house which shot up like a roman candle. This was according to a well-planned maneuver involving a total of nine separate steps.

For example, fire number one involved the living and dining rom areas. Each department was instructed as to which hose, pressure, degree, etc. to use. The time of control and extinction was noted in each step, as well as the amount of water for control and extinction.

Material and equipment used included: One 55-gallon drum kerosene and pump; one torch (butane); two stop watches; two buckets; one whistle; two 1000 GPM pumpers (500-gallon tanks); 1000 feet of two and a half inch hose; 300 feet of one and half inch hose; two fog nozzles, one and a half inch Elkharts or Woosters, and two 20-pound or 30 pound dry powder extinguishers.

The only mishap of the fire occurred when a rabbit family was smoked out of its home.

Moraga School Board Asks Names for Vacancy

Dr. Floyd Marchus, superintendent of Contra Costa County Schools last week gave the Moraga School Board a description of procedures used in the past to fill a vacancy. President, Donald M. Falconer resigned from the board as of the first of this month because he was transferred to Southern California.

Dr. Marchus outlined the procedures used in the past to find a new trustee in the San Pablo, Brentwood, Sheldon and Moraga, school districts. Dr. N. L. Morgenstern, 304 Rheem Boulevard, Moraga, was appointed to the board in 1961 by the technique of the superintendent using lay people to advise him as to qualified persons. By talking to citizens and through a representative committee of 12, fifteen nominations were made. The board studied the qualifications, sent the three top names back to the committee and took the top man from that group.

Under legislation enacted in 1961, the remaining members of the board will fill a vacancy. The board is writing letters to a number of local residents, including officers of various community organizations asking for suggestions of persons to replace Falconer.

In addition, the board is anxious to receive nominations from interested citizens. It urges anyone who has a suggestion to communicate with Rex A. Collings, Jr., clerk of the board, Camino Pablo School, or the other members of the board which include Robert Amber, Alfred B. Haskell and N. L. Morgenstern.

The board, recognizing that it has the final responsibility of appointing the new member, states it will consider all suggestions.

A Giant Step Forward, And a Negative Vote

Looks like we're making some progress in the park and recreation department, but not in the area where you would most expect it.

It looks like the East Bay Municipal Utility District is really getting ready to convert Lafayette Reservoir into what it should have been a long time ago—a beauty spot with recreational uses as well as a terminal reservoir for our water supply.

You may have read in the last issue of The Sun where cost estimates and a plan for operation of the reservoir as a recreation area are now under study by an East Bay water advisory committee.

A PLAN HAS BEEN established and will be presented to an East Bay water committee in the next 30 to 60 days.

We say "Hooray." This is a giant step forward, and we are really making progress. And this gives us food for a lot of thought.

In the first place, we have a county recreation department and we have a county park and recreation director. It would seem most logical that the recreational use of any EBMUD reservoir be coordinated closely with the county master plan for parks and recreation. And such coordination should be speedily achieved.

One of the problems encountered by the committee studying the recreational use of the reservoir was a person to operate the facilities at the reservoir in the event that it is opened for recreational use.

HOW ABOUT OUR own county department? Certainly the county park and recreation director is qualified to administrate such a problem, and if a private individual can operate the concessions at a profit, why can't the county do it?

In this way the use of this reservoir —and other EBMUD reservoirs—could become an integral part of the county park system.

The people — and The Sun — have been advocating this type of program for years. Doesn't this move finally corroborate what some of us have been saying for years? And that refers to the county purchasing land from the water district for future park sites.

A PERFECT EXAMPLE of this is the land around San Pablo Reservoir and the future Briones Reservoir. Why can't the county and the water district work out exactly the same kind of program for these areas that is being worked out for Lafayette Reservoir?

The land is owned by the water district—and that means each of us, because it is a municipal water district, not a private company. Why do we need to spend literally millions of dollars buying what we already own?

This also applies to the beautiful acreage in Alhambra Valley which is owned by the water district which plans to construct Pinole Reservoir in about 25 years.

And this is not only a local matter. How about Upper San Leandro Reservoir in Alameda County?

We certainly question that portion of the county bond issue, which will be submitted to the voters June 5, which calls for purchase of the EBMUD lands for park sites. In fact, on the basis of the above mentioned possibility, The Sun does not see how it can support a bond issue which includes purchase of the EBMUD lands.

We would certainly support a bond issue for purchase of other lands, such as the old John Marsh home, but not if it included the EBMUD land in a package deal.

THIS IS A BOND issue which will require your vote, and it certainly deserves your careful attention. Parks are necessary, and now is the time to acquire the land before it has vanished, but there is no need to spend needless millions of dollars when a better solution exists.

This whole area of recreational use of water company reservoirs is closer to home than you may realize. If you will remember, a few years ago EBMUD opened Pardee Reservoir, which is just beyond Stockton, to fishing and picnicking, and it has operated very successfully.

Such use of local reservoirs could provide beautiful fishing and outing facilities right in your own back yard.

AND IT WOULD be hard to find a more beautiful spot than Lafayette or San Pablo Reservoirs.

They are ideally suited to the uses of the community.

And it can be done in perfect safety as far as the water supply is concerned.

This has been proven at Pardee.

A Time for Looking....

Spring is here!

Well, not completely, perhaps, but by golly, it's getting close. Our lovely hills have turned green, and all the flowering fruit trees are bursting at the seams with color and fragrance.

Sometimes, in this workaday world, we forget to look at the beauty that exists right in our own back yard. After all, that is one of the reasons why we moved out to the "country," isn't it?

We are still getting spring showers, but we're also getting sunny, if nippy, days, too.

WHY NOT TAKE the family, pile into the car and take a drive? You can go in almost any direction and the experience will be rewarding. For example, how about taking a drive to the top of Mt. Diablo? We have one of the most beautiful parks in the state right here, and it is well worth the trip, because the view from the top is magnificent.

Almost any way you turn, you will find the beauty of spring right here, no more than a half hour from your home.

Why not pause for a look at it?

The Staff Corner

Just A Swan Song....

By DICK OSBORN

It's kind of like leaving home.

After 11 years of appearing, on and off, in this corner, we are saying farewell. And it's not easy.

During my tenure with The Sun, I have had the opportunity to meet literally hundreds of wonderful people from Orinda to Walnut Creek—from Danville to Martinez.

Many of the casual business acquaintances I made during the years turned to be lifelong friends, and I have enjoyed serving every one of you.

Another opportunity is taking me from this well-cushioned nest and out into the cruel, hard world.

So this is a swan song.

I AM SURE that many of you will be relieved to know that you won't have to face any more of the stuff which has turned up in this corner under my name during the past 11 years.

There's one thing that I think should be said, and now I am in a position to say it. The communities in which we live are the most wonderful in the world—and so are the people. Working with all of you has probably been the most rewarding experience in my life.

It has been my privilege to learn that the intelligent, concerned people of our communities really care about the future of the area. And this cohesive force is stronger than many of us realize.

FREQUENTLY the differences among our communities are stressed, but these are really minor compared to the basic philosophy which unites all of us into "central Contra Costa County," one of the most beautiful and pleasant places in the world in which to live and work.

I think everybody gets discouraged, from time to time, over the multitude of problems which seem to be with us constantly. Roads, taxes, zoning problems, possibly incorporation . . . these things seem to reappear like the seven-year locusts, only more frequently. And then to complicate matters, new questions, such as unification of our school system, appear.

BUT IF YOU take the long look, you will see that progress is being made, and that your friends and neighbors are the people responsible for this progress.

So much for the sermon. On the personal side, it would be impossible for me to thank each of you individually for the help, encouragement—yes, and the fun, too—that you have provided over the years.

Without you, my job would have been impossible.

It is going to capable hands, and I trust you will treat the new associate editor as gently as you have treated me.

And I hope his experiences will be as rewarding as mine have been.

Goodbye, for now.

Chapter III of the New Suburbia Primer

By MARIE MONAHAN

LOOK! Look! Look! See the Young Executive!

See the Young Executive in his gray flannel suit.

The Young Executive is always in a hurry.

Hurry, Hurry, Hurry.

The Young Executive must go to the Country Club to play golf.

He must go to the office to at least say he's been there.

THEN he must meet The Big Men for lunch.

Look! Look! He goes to the restaurant to meet the Big Men.

Big, Big men! Very Big Men!

Big, big restaurant.

Little, little lunch.

The reason the Young Executive & the Big Men eat a little lunch in the big, big restaurant is because they all have ulcers.

The Young Executive has ulcers. Brand new ones.

Many Young Executives have them.

It is part of the job of being an Executive.

THE BIG MEN have ulcers, too. But theirs are not brand new.

ULCERS are bad. Very, very bad.

The Young Executive drinks lots of milk.

Sometimes he has a Martini instead.

Oh, Oh, Oh!

See the Young Executive with his little white cards.

He is paying for the little lunch for all the Big Men.

The Young Executive has many, many little white cards.

SO DO the Big Men.

Oh, Oh, Oh!

The Young Executive is very tired.

TIRED, tired, tired!

Tired of too much golf. Tired of too much talk.

Tired of those little white cards!

BUT the Young Executive must not let anyone know it.

That is because the Young Executive is on his way Up.

UP, UP, UP!

The Big Men are already Up There. But they are tired, too.

They all wonder why they are Up There.

ALWAYS smiling.

Always hurrying.

Always reaching for their little white cards . . .

Or their glass of milk . . .

Or their pills.

Oh, Oh, Oh.

IF YOU are going to grow up to be a Young Executive, be sure you learn to like milk . . . & golf . . . & little white cards.

Letters to The Editor

EMBUD LAND

Dear Editor:

How silly (it would be impolite to saw stupid) can two-governmental bodies get?

Your March 2 issue tells of the program being evolved to use EBMUD's Lafayette Reservoir for recreational facilities.

The proposal envisions a cost of $300,000 for initial development with the cost recovered from operations. No increase is planned in the cost of water, EBMUD taxes or county taxes. The article intimates that the same type of cooperation could be extended to the 900 EBMUD acres surrounding the reservoir.

Now the same two parties, EBMUD and Contra Costa Counties, are having discussions about land surrounding San Pablo and Briones reservoirs. This time they have quietly gotten together on a proposal for Contra Costa County to pass a $5 million bond issue and give most of it to EBMUD for the purchase of land.

The county is already eliminating such "unessential" items as access roads to the area.

I hope that voters are smart enough to see that the same pattern could be followed with San Pablo and Briones resivoirs—and with all the thousands of EBMUD acres. The $5 million bond issue is unnecessary. The taxes to pay for the bond issue are unnecessary.

The sensible thing to do is to apply the "Lafayette Reservoir Formula" as it is being developed to all of the EBMUD lands.

ROBERT KAHN

Dear Editor:

You ask your readers if they have read the recent Time-America, Thos. Stocke and Barry Goldwater, Kuchel, etc.

I would like to ask Mr. Silverman if he has read the Burns report of 1961 on Un-American Activities in California—or "Masters of Deceit" or the National Review or Edward Hunter's testimony before Congress on the New Drive to Defeat Anti-Communism.

All anyone needs to learn can be found in government documents if only they would take the time. It's so much easier to get the "facts" from one liberal newspaper. The best way to see what's happening is to read the Daily Worker and find out what their plans are and how dedicated they are in attacking the "right wing extremists" too.

Under The Sun

We're Not the Only Ones To Gas About Stations

BY HERMAN SILVERMAN

For some years this newspaper has questioned the policy of our oil companies in building an excessive number of gas stations in this community.

In turn, some of the oil companies and other people have criticized The Sun for our editorial position.

Apparently we aren't the only ones who feel strongly about this. Here is an editorial from The Valley Pioneer in Danville. It will take five minutes and is worthwhile.

"To all those who hold the San Ramon Valley as a wholesome retreat from the stifling, oppressive perturbations of urban atmosphere . . . to all those who revere the sight of nature's verdant abundance in these once rustic hamlets . . . and particularly to all those who believe the quaint, tidy air of rural abandon should be preserved in this valley . . . to all these and many more . . . we bring tidings of further plans to deface our picturesque panorama!

"FOUR MORE SERVICE STATIONS WILL BE CONSTRUCTED IN THAT SECTION OF SAN RAMON VALLEY BETWEEN ALAMO AND DANVILLE!!!

Hear Ye, Note This!

"This means that from an inexcusable total of 19 stations at present, the number will be increased to 23, and we hear rumors of still another in the talking stage!

"We've written on this subject in the past, and we're told by particular people engaged in the petroleum business to mind our own. In the last article we stated, and we reiterate now: Anyone has a right to enter into an enterprise which he believes will net a fair return on the original investment, and certainly no one can set themselves up as an authority to dictate who and where particular businesses should be located . . . to a point . . . but this is ridiculous.

"It's not bad enough that we are laughingly referred to as 'Gasoline Alley,' and 'Lubrication Lane,' but on the serious side, our chance to develop a strong economic status in the communities of Danville and Alamo are being seriously hampered by this wanton disregard for the area's appearance. This section cannot support two dozen filling stations, and yet the oil companies continue to erect them as fast as property becomes available. The fact that they do, does not by any means, reflect a lack of business acumen on the part of these industrial giants. They will sell their product, regardless of the net yield to the lessor, and if the individual vendor fails to realize sufficient profit, the oil companies simply enter into an arrangement with another gullible would-be dispenser.

Oil Companies Watch Sales

"Nor can we sell the oil companies short by assuming they are not aware of where the marketing locations are developing. If the newer residential and mercantile centers tend to move from one side of a community to another, that's where a new station will appear. If perchance, their dealer on the opposite side of town shows a tangible decrease in volume what's the difference? Total sales for Brand 'X' are increased, and if eventually, the operation in the slower area has to be closed, it is of small consequence to the parent corporation.

"Last year, Supervisor Mel Nielsen introduced an ordinance which would require all service stations to obtain a Land Use Permit, prior to commencing operations. This ordinance was approved, and went into effect in November 1961. The oil companies who are constructing the four stations were aware of this pending legislation however, and obtained building permits before the deadline.

Operators Not to Blame

"To construct more, and more, of these stations can only hurt the valley as a whole. Those of us who are comparative newcomers to Danville and Alamo are increasingly aware that this is not the same attractive town we moved to, and how must the real 'old-timers' feel about the gradual eroding of their home town?

"We are told that 'progress is change,' and we can only answer that, in this instance . . . 'progress is our LEAST important product'!"

The Robert Angells of Lafayette will join forces with Ann and Charles Zook Sutton of Piedmont to host another pre-party dinner at the "Whistle Stop" in Oakland and Mrs. William Channell, president of the league, and her husband have invited advisory committee members to a no-host dinner at the Chandelier restaurant in Oakland.

Still another supper party is planned by the junior Richard Cotters who have bid 16 guests to a buffet at their Orinda home.

Famed Puppets to Star In 'Nutcracker Suite'

Humpty Dumpty and Pandora Chapters of Children's Home Society of California will sponsor a pre-World's Fair appearance of Maxim Gershunoff's "Children's Theater of America" puppet production of "The Nutcracker Suite" at Miramonte High School auditorium March 17 at 11 a.m. An Oakland presentation is scheduled for the same afternoon at 3 p.m. in the Oakland Auditorium Theater.

This attraction, including both puppets and marionettes, has been invited for 14 performances, beginning August 27, 1962, at the Seattle "Century 21" joining Japan's Bunraku puppets, and Poland's Llaka puppets already scheduled for the fair. Other than the successful Westbay and Peninsula performances recently, this will be the only opportunity for local children to view this "live" theater.

A forest fantasy, the action is set to the familiar music of "The Nutcracker Suite," which will be introduced by Maestro Psst, a marionette. He conducts the overture in prelude to the appearance of a ventriloquist, Russ Lewis, portraying a woodsman.

Russ meets several woodland creatures, who object to a human in their enchanted forest, but he makes friends with them and allows Alfie the Elf to cause him to disappear before the arrival of the Sugar Plum Fairy, a beautiful butterfly. The play is climaxed as the entire forest seems to come alive and dance in a colorful marionette ballet.

Tickets are $1 and may be obtained at Music Town in Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek; at several locations in Orinda, or from chapter members. March 10, members will staff ticket booths at Rhodes in Concord, and Capwell's in Walnut Creek.

For futher information, telephone Mrs. Kenneth Parkhurst, YE 4-5780 or Mrs. Vernon Axelson, CL 4-2040.

Mannequins for Moms

FIFTY YEARS of Girl Scout uniforms were modeled recently by Troop 387 of Orinda. Girl Scouts are celebrating their Golden Anniversary next Monday. Above, Mrs. Frederick Cook, leader of Troop 387, passes cookies to some of the models. In uniforms of yesterday and today are (from left to right): Susan Bartlett, Katie Christianson, Cathleen Rahan, Barbara Coak and Carolyn Hunt. Sun photo by Bob Yost.

As a climax to earning their good grooming badge, Orinda Girl Scout Troop 387 presented a fashion show recently at the Glorietta School for their mothers. The badge was given by the program consultant, Mrs. Philip Lehrman of Walnut Creek. Refreshments were served.

Each girl modeled clothes from her own closet: One sports outfit, one school outfit and one party dress. Highlight of the show was the modeling of two Girl Scout uniforms of past years to contrast with the modern uniforms.

Members of Troop 387 participating in the fashion show were: Elaine Andersen, Susan Bartlett, Sarah Boyd, Bonnie Brown, Beverley Cavalli, Katie Christenson, Dorina Clark, Barbara Cook, Lynne Fairchild, Gene Glacy, Pamela Hancock, Leslie Hanson, Nancy Harmon, Denise Hill, Carolyn Hunt, Anna Johnson, Christine Jones, Lynn Kimbrough, Nancy Parsons, Colleen Rohan, Karen Rubenstein, Kitty Sandidge, Janet Saulicich, Pamela Small, Nancy Spear, Karen Spinks, Janet Ternes, Brenda Webb, Katherine White and Sarah Young.

Blossom Tea For Gardeners

Not only does she conduct classes in her home, but she also instructs in the use of nature's products at the Berkeley Recreation Camp. Here she helps to gather and assemble in an artistic manner, plant material, rocks and wood forms found in the wild. Growing succulents is another of this versatile lady's hobbies and many are used in her arrangements.

Tickets may be procured from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Gerald Linares at 14 Tokay Court, Pleasant Hill or from the president, Mrs. Noel Gaubert at 517 Lagonda Way, Danville.

The committee in charge of the affair is headed by Mrs. Floyd Smith and assisted by Mesdames George Kewin, Frank Kupper, Julian Ramelli, William Stritzky and Gerald Linares.

J. Crow of Pleasant Hill. Following the luncheon Mrs. Copsey outlined the chapter's philanthropic activities and brought guests up to date on current projects.

MOTHERS CLUB

The blooming pink tulip tree in front of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority house in Berkeley will be the floral cue to events inside the house on Friday, March 9, when the chapter's Mothers Club will stage its annual bridge luncheon to benefit AGD house furnishings.

The party is themed "Bossoms of Spring," and 12:30 p.m. luncheon will be followed by a fashion show in which 14 of the active members will model their own dawn-to-lock-out-time clothes to demonstrate what's fashionable on campus for every occasion.

Berkeley's flowering plum, cherry, quince, and apple trees will provide decor for the party at 2424 Warring Street.

Mrs. Thomas E. Jefferies of Sibert Court, Lafayette, is chairman for the benefit affair, and Mrs. William E. Barry of Compo Via Court, Danville, vice-president, is in charge of luncheon decorations. Reservations and tickets are being handled by Mrs. Walter Haley of 2616 17th Avenue, San Francisco.

ALPHA DELTA PHI

The Alpha Delta Phi Mother's Club will hold its annual party March 21 at the Berkeley chapter house. This year it will be a dessert party at 1:30 p.m., followed by "Elizabeth Arden's Portrait of Beauty."

Mrs. Lillian MacMillian, manager of the San Francisco Elizabeth Arden Salon, will present the program, to be followed by a silent auction.

Tickets are $2 and may be obtained from ticket chairman, Mrs. Paul Clark, 1009 Mariposa Avenue, Berkeley, LA 4-2446.

Masks Set Mood for Art Ball

With tri-dimensional six-foot masks setting the mood for the decor, Orinda Art Center members are busy preparing for their Mardi Gras Masque Ball to be held tonight from 7 p.m. to 1 p.m. at the Orinda Country Club.

Mrs. R. Dale McBane and Mrs. Robert Field worked all last weekend designing and constructing the giant masks with assorted neighborhood children watching in fascinated amazement.

All sponsors of the Orinda Art Center have been contacted, local art groups and all interested persons being invited by invitations chairman, Mrs. Shephard Jones. Reservations are being accepted by Mrs. Richard Funk, CL 4-4864, and Mrs. William Traverso, CL 4-2393.

Dinner and dancing will be $12.50 per couple. Reservations must be in by Tuesday, according to reservations chairmen.

Costumes will be preferred and there will be no admittance without a mask, although co-chairmen Mrs. William B. Leftwich and Mrs. Robert Field will be on hand at the door with a tray of masks for reluctant or forgetful guests.

Hostess will be under the supervision of Mrs. Ralph Hickox. Al Trobbe's orchestra will provide music for dinner and dancing.

Tea Thanks Donors

A "thank you" tea with a 'round the world theme was held from two to four at the home of Mrs. Joseph J. Navone, 3468 South Silver Springs Road, Lafayette, last Tuesday. Co-hostess with Mrs. Navone was Mrs. Hatteo Gavotto, 3167 Gloria Terrace, Lafayette. About 100 guests from all parts of the Bay Area enjoyed the sumptuously-appointed affair.

The "thank you" was for donations in response to a "Phantom Tea" invitation sent out by Mrs. Gavotto to benefit Christ the King Catholic Church, Pleasant Hill.

Guests walked across an arched oriental bridge in the exotic Japanese garden of the Navone home. The interior also had many semi-rare flowering plants loaned by the Orchard Nursery. Besides the customary tea and coffee, ladies' delicate white wine, sherry and port were served. A tea orchestra played during the early hours of the function.

Among the accouterments was a collection of rare Spode cups and saucers belonging to Mrs. Ralph Bates, Lafayette; an ornate sterling tea service and an extraordinary collection of teaspoons belonging to Mrs. Candido Jacuzzi. Mrs. Jacuzzi of Upper Valley Road, Lafayette, was unable to participate in the affair as she and her husband are on an extended world tour.

The refreshments were enhanced by Mrs. Guisto Milano's cookies made from fame unwritten Old World recipies, and tea sandwiches made by Mrs. Robert Higgins of Lafayette. Marty's Gourmet Shop, Walnut Creek, loaned a basket of edibles from all over the world to carry out the theme.

Among those rotating at the table were Mesdames Henry Kosta, John Perelli, Lloyd Porchio, Joseph Fazio, Paul Pagnini and Myron Prouty.

After the tea Mrs. Gavotto will devote most of her time getting ready for a four-month jaunt to Europe. She and her husband will leave May 10.

Jerri Farmer Engaged

The engagement of Jeri Hope Farmer to William Putnam Douglas was announced at a party for friends and relatives of the couple in the Walnut Creek Women's City Club recently by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Farmer of Pleasant Hill.

Jeri attended The Principia School of St. Louis, Missouri, for four years, graduating in 1960, after which she worked for a year for the Crocker Anglo Bank of Walnut Creek. She has since been attending Chico State College. Jeri has a married brother, Michael, who is a senior at the University of California.

Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas of Pleasant Hill and is a 1959 graduate of Pleasant Hill High School. He is now managing the shoe department for J. C. Penney's Walnut Creek store and is also attending Diablo Valley College in the evenings.

Donna Lane Is Engaged

A March wedding is planned by Donna Jean Lane and Bernard R. Norvell, it was announced recently at a dinner party in the Claremont Hotel given by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Daniel Lane of Orinda.

Miss Lane attended Contra Costa Junior College, is active with Job's Daughters and is affiliated with the Children's Foster Care Service.

"Bernie" as he is known to his friends, is the son of Col. and Mrs. Hamilton Bond of Lafayette. He attended Contra Costa Junior College and Armstrong Business College and is a veteran of the armed forces. The wedding will take place in the Orinda Community Church with the reception following at Treasure Island.

Intermediate Cage Tourney Had Action Galore

OBVIOUSLY EXCITED by the action on the court are these Pleasant Hill Intermediate cheer leaders as they root their team to a third-place finish in the Walnut Creek Recreation Department basketball tournament last Friday night. The girls were part of an overflow crowd that watched the 13 games at the Las Lomas gym.

A FINE DEFENSIVE effort by a Fairview School player prevents John Black of Parkmead from scoring in this action during the championship game. However, Fairview just didn't have the offensive punch, as Parkmead won, 19-5.

JUST ONE of the many fine players in the tournament was Stephen Bradley (with ball), a center from Camino Pablo School. Gary Shaw (37), Jim Tucker (19) and a third Stanley player surround Bradley after he grabbed a defensive rebound. Stanley won, 7-5. Sun photos by Bob Yost.

Gray, Weaver Voted Honors By Writers

Junior forward Steve Gray and resigning head coach Jim Weaver, both of St. Mary's College, were named "Player of the Year" and "Coach of the Year" by the Northern California Basketball Writers Association this week.

Weaver, who announced his resignation after seven years at St. Mary's, has not announced his plans for the future as yet.

Gray is the second straight St. Mary's player to win the honor from the writers. Last year it was Tom Meschery.

Gray has been averaging well over 20 points a game this year as well as being a top rebounder.

Junior guard Tom Sheridan of St. Mary's won a position on the writers' second team.

The writers picked Gray, Bob Gaillard (USF), Ken Stanley (UOP), John Windsor (Stanford) and Leroy Jackson (Santa Clara) on their first all-star team.

Sytkowski Is All-League Selection

Mickey Sytowski of College Park was named to the 1962 Diablo Valley Athletic League-Contra Costa Division All-Star team by a vote of the league's coaches.

Parkmead Wins Intermediate Cage Title

Parkmead Intermediate Schoil of Walnut Creek routed Fairview Intermediate of Lafayette, 19-5, to win the championship of the Walnut Creek Recreation Department basketball tournament last Friday night at Las Lomas.

The win over Fairview was the third of the evening for Parkmead.

All eight intermediate schools in this area competed in the tournament with 13 games played in less than three hours.

Each game was 10 minutes "running time" in duration except a playoff for third place which was an official five minutes and the championship game which was an official 10 minutes.

PARKMEAD defeated Stanley in the first game of the evening, 6-2, then edged Pleasant Hill Intermediate, 14-11, in the evening's best game, to gain the final round.

Fairview squeezed past Camino Pablo, 8-5, in a sudden death overtime, then easily defeated Walnut Creek, 7-2, in the second round.

Finishing fourth in the tournament was Stanley School of Lafayette.

Pleasant Hill scored a last-second basket to edge Stanley, 6-5, in the playoff for third place.

Walnut Creek finished fifth in the tourney with Camino Pablo sixth.

Inland Valley took seventh place, edging Pine Grove for that position, 10-8, in an overtime game.

Weather Hampers Spring Sports

Plenty of Snow Now-- Season to Last 'til May

By HEC HANCOCK

A month ago, anyone with sufficient temerity to forecast a 20-foot snow pack by the first week in March would have been measured for a straitjacket, and quietly shuffled off for treatment of hallucinations.

To review the bidding, the snow cover at the end of January consisted of a thin veneer of ice. There appeared to be little reason to doubt that we were in for another dry year. Even with heavy snowfalls, it definitely looked like another sub-par year.

Now, the problem has become one of abundance rather than scarcity.

It is no longer a question of where is the snow, but, rather, one of "can we get there?"

Mark Twain's comment on the weather was never more appropriate.

The series of blockbuster storms that held the Sierra in their grip for the past two weeks, necessitating the occasional closing of the highways, have subsided and the roads are clear once more. Ski conditions have never been better. The good life awaits those who will take it.

The wonderful thing is that the best skiing of the year is very definitely still ahead of us. With a late spring season assured, we confront the prospect of skiing in shirt sleeves, under warm spring skies well into May.

Those that habitually chop their season off at the end of March will be sorry!

Soon it will be possible to make the trek to the mountains without having to wrestle tire chains, fight blizzards and bundle up like an Arctic trapper. It won't be long before, shirtsleeves, shorts and noontime sun baths are the order of the day.

Echo Summit reports that the snow is now up to the second-story porch, making it possible to step from the porch to the slope. Literally, you can ski right in for lunch.

Chris Kurasia and Bob Wood of Heavenly Valley announced that the Saturday guest slaloms will once more be resumed, starting this weekend.

The interruption in the weekly event was dictated by the heavy schedule of competitive events sponsored by Heavenly Valley during the past month. However, the program is under way once more, and will be climaxed with a race on Easter Sunday for the Ray Schwartz Memorial Trophy for the weekly winners.

Dodge Ridge will continue to conduct their standard Gold Nugget Giant Slaloms in the East Bowl on Sundays. The event is open to all skiers.

Since depths of 12 feet or better are reported as low as 5800 feet, it isn't necessary to drive as far for snow fun as it has been. For those groups and families that are just looking for a day of romping in the snow, maybe sliding down a hill or two on sled or toboggan, it is no longer necessary to get in the higher elevations.

Thus, you can take advantage of the smaller areas that cater to the occasional snow visitor.

Also, it enables you to cut from 30 to 40 miles off the trip each way. This is a considerable saving, particularly on the harrassed fathers stuck with the driving.

San Ramon Gains Share of Second In FAL Finale

San Ramon gained a share of second place in the final Foothill Athletic League standings by defeating Acalanes, 56-50, last Friday night.

The win gave the Wolves a 9-3 mark, the same as Las Lomas. Both teams finished one game behind champion Piedmont.

A third quarter spurt highlighted by guard Bob Metez' 10 points broke a close game open and enabled the Wolves to romp home.

Metez finished with 23 points as he missed overtaking Bob Nichols of Las Lomas in the scoring race by just one point.

NICHOLS finished with 206 points to take the scoring crown while Metez finished with 205.

In the other league game Friday, hard-luck Miramonte unleashed its pent-up feelings on hapless Alhambra, winning 59-42, and gaining a share of fifth place. The win enabled the Mats to avoid a deadlock with cellar-dwelling Del Valle.

At San Ramon the Dons and Wolves battled to a 13-13 standoff in the first quarter with San Ramon gaining a slim, 29-27 lead at halftime.

Chris Reed and Charlie Bogue finished with 14 and 12 points respectively for the Wolves.

John Paul Jones paced Acalanes with 15 points while Bill Hays finished with 14.

JUNIOR GUARD Bruce Nickerson and senior forward Mike McQuaid were the big guns for Miramonte as the Mats won No. 3.

Nickerson finished with 18 points while McQuaid had 17. In all, coach Herb Graw's team had eight players in the scoring column.

Miramonte led from the start, rolling up a 13-6 first quarter advantage and leading 28-19 at the half.

FAL Track Season Opens Today With Three Meets

Five spring sports will make their entrance on the local high school scene soon—if the weatherman cooperates.

Golf matches and track meets have already been delayed by the weather, while practice in baseball and tennis has been virtually non-existent. Swimming is the only sport not affected by the weather.

Swimming in the Foothill League began this week with golf being rained out.

The Foothill League and Contra Costa Division are scheduled to open their track season this afternoon.

COLLEGE PARK and Pleasant Hill are scheduled to face each other in a dual meet this afternoon at Pleasant Hill.

The meet was washed out at the College Park oval on Tuesday. The Falcons have also rescheduled a meet with Alhambra that was rained out last Friday.

In the Foothill League today, three league dual meets are on tap.

Miramonte is at Alhambra, Las Lomas travels to Piedmont and Acalanes entertains Del Valle.

The all-junior Trojans are the only FAL team that has tasted actual competition this season.

The Trojans and Skyline splashed through a meet in Oakland with Skyline winning, 65-39.

It was the first track meet ever for Skyline while it was the first of varsity track competition for Del Valle.

The baseball season for local teams begins next week — the weather permitting.

Tennis is a fall sport in the CCD, but a spring sport in the FAL.

Las Lomas in Top Field At Sacramento Tourney

A field of eight top high school basketball teams, including Las Lomas, opened play in the first Camellia City Tournament in Sacramento yesterday. The three-day affair is being held at the American River Junior College gymnasium.

The Knights, who finished in a second-place deadlock in the Foothill League, opened last night against Bishop O'Dowd, one of six league champions competing in the tourney.

Las Lomas and Sequoia High of Redwood City are the only two teams in the tourney who did not bring along their league titles to Sacramento.

THE KNIGHTS' first foe, Bishop O'Dowd, shared the Oakland Catholic League crown with St. Elizabeth.

The other two teams in the bracket with Las Lomas and O'Dowd are Pittsburg and Edison of Stockton. Pittsburg won the Contra Costa division of the DVAL for the second straight year, while Edison shared the Central California Conference with Franklin.

Franklin is also in the Camellia tourney — in the other bracket with C. K. McClatchy, San Rafael and Sequoia.

McCLATCHY is the Sacramento Metropolitan League champion, while San Rafael won the Marin County League championship.

If Las Lomas defeated O'Dowd last night, they will play the winner of the Pittsburg-Edison game at 9:30 tonight.

If the Knights lost last night, they will play the loser of the Pittsburg-Edison game at 6:30 today.

Two years ago, Las Lomas won the Tracy tournament, then were defeated defending the title in the semi-final round of the same tourney last year by McClatchy, 59-42.

The championship game of the Camelia tournament will be played at 9:30 tomorrow night.

Mats Repeat As FAL Champs in B Basketball

Miramonte's B team defeated Alhambra, 49-32, in the last contest of the season for both teams, last Friday.

Geoff Anderson scored 14 points, followed by teammates Steve Cummings and Pete Boyle, who had 12 and 10 respectively.

The victory placed Miramonte in undisputed first place in the Foothill League with a record of 11-1. It was the second straight B title for coach Frank Scott's team. Last year the Mats had a 9-1 record.

	W	L

Del Valle also defeated Alhambra on Tuesday, 42-38.

Vic Shellenberg was high scorer with 15 tallies, followed by Bruce Black with 10.

Del Valle finished fourth with a 6-6 record.

San Ramon concluded its season with a win and a loss last week.

The Wolves were barely nipped by Las Lomas, 39-38, on Tuesday, but reversed the process against Acalanes, 42-41.

Tom Benson scored 16 for the Wolves against Acalanes. Don Jim Medak scored an amazing 24 points for the losers.

Five FAL Swim Teams Given Chance for Title

With the spring season already upon us, more than 200 swimmers at the five Foothill Athletic League schools are preparing for the first meets of their season.

This year, for the first time in several years, there appears to be a tight race for the championship laurels of the league. The heavy toll of graduation has been felt at defending champion Las Lomas, and this may make a balanced league.

It seems possible that the championship could pass into the hands of any team in the league. Piedmont and Del Valle do not have swim teams.

Miramonte appears to be the overall favorite to replace Las Lomas.

Coach Dick Gompf welcomes wto freshmen stars from the Aquabears in Bob Kammeyer and Duke Gibbs. When added to a strong nucleus of veterans in Perry Mann, Bob Savage, Mike McGuire and Cory Lowther, the Matadors will be hard to beat.

ALTHOUGH hit had by graduation, Las Lomas should still prove to be Miramonte's toughest competition. Joe Higgins, coach at Utah State last year, has replaced Principal Ed Leach as coach.

Coach Higgins has some fine material to work with in Chris Ostrom, Fritz Von Tagen, Don Smith, diver Al Pomeroy and Bob Strand.

Strand, one of the finiest swimmers in Northern California, gives Las Lomas two sure first places in each meet. Without a doubt, he is the finest swimmer in the league.

Acalanes, coached by Dick Dobbins, probably has the best depth in the league, but few outstanding swimmers to defeat the top teams. Bill and Tom Higgins and a fine crew of divers in Bill Hoyt, Clark Howland and Eric Neighbor will offer top competition in their events.

San Ramon and Alhambra are given only slight chances to upset the leaders.

RALPH JACKSON at Alhambra has some fine individual swimmers in Homer Dawson, Bob Jeans, Don Young and Paul Pagnini, but has no depth to complement it.

Depth is also the problem that Jack Mansfield at San Ramon faces. Phil Greer, Norm Rhett, Bob Keane and Tim Cronin form a nucleus for the Wolves. A strong freshman class may help the situation at San Ramon.

College Park JVs Lose CCD Finale

The College Park junior varsity concluded its season last week by losing a heartbreaker to Mt. Diablo, 52-50.

Mickey Walters scored 18 points for the Falcons.

College Park finished the season with a record of 6-13 and fourth place in the Contra Costa JV League.

DVC Golf Streak Snapped at 16

Diablo Valley College golfers had their 16-match winning streak broken Monday afternoon by Menlo College in their first Coast Conference match of the season.

Menlo, which shared the league championship with DVC last year, blasted the Vikings, 13½ - 1½, on the Stanford golf course in a steady downpour.

Steve Lamphere was low for DVC with a 77, but Menlo's Paul Loveless took medalist honors with a 74. Par was 71.

Dick Shaul and Don Minor both had 84s for DVC while Dennis Gault and Scot Merne had 87s.

DVC is at Sonoma today for a match with Hamilton Air Force Base.

At Contra Costa Country Club Monday afternoon, the Vikings will face College of San Mateo in a non-league match. San Mateo has won the state junior college golf championship for the past four years. The match was rained out last week.

The next league match for the Viks is Thursday at Vallejo.

DVC plays a seven-match league schedule.

The Vikings are 4-1 overall this season and 0-1 in the Coast Conference.

PH Group Is Seeking Pop Warner Status

A recently formed youth football organization in Pleasant Hill is seeking acceptance in the East Bay Pop Warner League, it was announced this week.

If Pleasant Hill is accepted, it will become the second local team to compete in the league. The LaMorinda Thunderbirds have competed in the league for the past two years. Boys from Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga are eligible for the LaMorinda team.

Stewart Osmer, president of the Pleasant Hill group, lists the Pleasant Hill Park and Recreation District as sponsor, and said the new team has become affiliated with the National Pop Warner Association.

Walnut Hills Swimmer Set PA Record

Dick Pomeroy of Walnut Hills Country Club swim team broke the Pacific Association record in the 220-yard breaststroke Saturday at the PA Senior swimming championships held last weekend at San Francisco State College.

Pomeroy's time was 2:37.3.

Bob Strand was the only other Walnut Hills winner in the two-day meet.

Strand won the 100-yard backstroke in 1:00.1.

Pomeroy and Strand both picked up two more medals for second and third place finishes.

Strand was second in the 200-yard individual medley and third in the 200-yard backstroke.

Pomeroy was second in the 100-yard breaststroke and third in the 220-yard individual medley.

DVC Finishes 4th in Coast Basketball

Diablo Valley College ended its 1961-62 basketball season on a losing note last Friday night and ended up in fourth place in Coast Conference standings with a 7-7 record.

Vallejo defeated the Vikings, 79-65, on its home court in the finale.

Vallejo finished in third place behind Foothill College and San Jose City College, the league champion.

The Vikings trailed all the way against the hot-shooting Falcons. It was 38-27 at the half.

TOM NICHOLS paced the Vikings as usual — he had 20 points and finished in the top five in the Coast Conference scoring race.

The Falcons hit 54 per cent of their shots from the floor and would have rolled up a bigger margin of victory, but they had trouble hitting from the free throw line. Of 29 chances, Vallejo made only 17.

Gerry Sheehan had 13 points for the Vikings and was the only other DVC player in double figures.

Vallejo was paced by Willie Anderson and Frank Mixon who scored 22 and 21 points respectively.

Shoe Stable, Diamond Building Deadlocked in Danville Cage Loop

Shoe Stable and Diamond Building Materials finished in a dead heat for the Danville Basketball League title as Martinez upset the shoemen in the final game of the season, 53-51.

Regular league play ended last week with both teams having 9-3 records.

A special playoff will determine the league champion with the championship playoffs between the top four teams starting a day later.

The winner of the Shoe Stable-Diamond game will face fourth-place Martinez in the first game of the playoffs while the loser will meet Aerojet, the third-place finisher.

THE TWO winners in the first round will meet for the championship.

Aerojet finished with an 8-4 record while Martinez was 6-5.

Pearson Lumber finished fifth with a 4-6 record with Vern S. Ryan last with a 1-10 record. Carter Glass, last year's champion, dropped out of the league at the midway point in the season.

Diamond won twice last week to force the tie, defeating Ryan, 54,39, and Aerojet, 70,53.

AEROJET dropped both its games last week, the other to Pearson, 43-42. Aerojet could have won the championship by winning both games and could have gained a tie by splitting the two games.

Martinez apparently is the jinx team for Shoe Stable, defeating the shoemen in both regular season games.

Acalanes basketball coach Bert Barnett paced Martinez to the win over Shoe Stable with 17 points. Barnett had set a league scoring record with 43 points the previous week.

Aquabears Set Two Records in PA Swim Meet

As usual, Dick Jacobberger and Charles Schillinsky highlighted the Aquabears' performance last weekend in the Pacific Association AAU Senior Championship at San Francisco State College.

Top performers in the meet qualify for the PA state championships to be held in Sacramento. The Aquabears finished third in team standings.

The two young men set PA records and collected five first place medals between them.

Jacobberger set his record in the 220-yard freestyle with a time of 2:05.1. The old record was 2:06.1.

SCHILLINSKY knocked almost four seconds off the old 400-yard medley relay record, finishing in a time of 4:38.0. The old record was 4:41.7.

Jacobberger also took firsts in the 100-yard freestyle and 100-yard butterfly. Schillinsky added his second win in the 440-yard freestyle.

The two record-breakers also swam on the 400-yard freestyle relay team that finished second behind Foothill College. The other members of the team were Bob Kammeijer and John Selmer.

Other Aquabears who placed in the meet were Suzie Barkley, Chris Umphred, Marilee Rocca, Duke Gibbs and the relay team of Pat Schweirs, Miss Rocca, Miss Umphred and Mary Jacoby.

St. Mary's Frosh Team Shows Plenty of Promise

There will be plenty of talent coming up to the Saint Mary's varsity basketball team next season. At least that's the story if the record of this season's Gael frosh means anything.

The Saint Mary's freshmen have posted a 14-2 record to date, and are rated among the top first-year ball clubs on the Pacific Coast.

After losing early season contests to the California and Stanford freshmen, the men of coach Andy Sloan have won 12 straight, posting convincing wins over such teams as the USF frosh, 64-59, and the Santa Clara freshmen, 59-38. They have yet to lose to a West Coast Athletic Conference frosh club.

THE BIG gun for the junior Gaels is deadeye guard Dick Fagliano. Fagliano, who now lives in Walnut Creek, played his prep ball at Oakland's Bishop O'Dowd High, where he was named to high school All-American teams in his senior year.

At Moraga, he has shown an outstanding shooting eye in leading the team with an average of over 20 points a game. Fagliano shoots with both hands, and scores on deadly jump shots and driving hooks.

The Gaelet front line men are all scoring double figures, as well as dominating the rebound action.

Jumping-jack center Jim Moore, 6-4, is averaging over 11 points a game. Moore starred at Richmond High last season where he acquired a deft touch on tip-ins.

Forward Ronnie Kellum has been the big surprise on the team. Under the intensive tutelage of Coach Sloan, Kellum has developed a fine jump-shot which he didn't have at the start of the season, and now averages over 10 points a game. Coming to Saint Mary's via Berkeley's Saint Mary's High, Kellum was always a top rebounder.

HAILING from San Bruno's Capachino High School, forward Bob Turner, 6-4, has proved to be the toughest and most consistant man on the team, with the knack of coming up with clutch baskets.

When the freshmen fell behind in their game with the USF frosh, Turner popped in three straight jump-shots to give the Gaelets a lead they never relinquished. He is averaging 10 points a game.

Completing the starting five is fireball guard Danny Odishoo. Odishoo is the man who sets up the team's points, in addition to averaging seven points per game on his elusive drives.

Lafayette Team Wins Church Cage Title

Lafayette Methodist Youth basketball team won the Orinda-Lafayette Church League title Saturday night defeating Santa Maria Catholic, 38-24, in a special playoff game.

Both teams had finished with 4-1 records in league play.

Santa Maria had defeated Lafayette by one point in league play.

Lafayette led all the way in the rematch however. It was 14-5 at the half.

SANTA Maria made a comeback bid in the third quarter, trimming the margin to five points, 16 to 11, but Lafayette pulled away at that point.

The final point spread would have been greater, but the winners could hit on only five of 17 free-throw chances.

Bruce Arnold, Roger Clark, Ken Floyd, Ken Haak, Fred Kritcher, Peter Lier and Pat Pease were the mainstays of the Lafayette Methodist team.

Wrestling Is New Sport

Beginning on November 30 a new sport will hit the scene on the Diablo Valley College campus—wrestling.

"Practice will begin right after the football season and the season will end with the state tournament in March," said coach Doug Smith.

The Vikings will compete in the Golden Gate Conference against San Jose City College, Foothill, San Mateo, Oakland City College, San Francisco City College, Contra Costa College and the new Chabo College in Hayward.

DVC will wrestle each squad twice and will participate in three tournaments, the North Coast Junior College Tournament and State Tournament included.

This is a relatively new sport for junior colleges in Northern California, but due to the strong interest in the Diablo Valley area, some good wrestling will be seen, said Smith.

At the present time Smith is looking for a number of participants, "All are welcome."

Smith suggested that boys wishing to go out should schedule all their classes for next semester in the morning, for practices will be scheduled for the afternoons.

Mavericks and Graysons Tied In PH 'B' Loop

After two weeks of play, Graysons and Mavericks are at the top of the Pleasant Hill Adult B Recreation League.

Both have won two games.

Mavericks routed Shell AA, 85-35, then thumped Ruth Reuff, 76-26, for their two wins.

Grayson won on forfeit over the Nats, then edged Knights, 55-47, with a last quarter spurt.

IN OTHER games, Equitable came from behind in the second half to defeat Dunkers, 48-37, and the Nats defeated Shell, 39-26, in a game halted after three quarters because of an injury.

The Mavericks received balanced scoring in both wins. Against Shell, Don Anderson had 19 and Al Georgetto 18. Two other players — Bob Robertson and Bob Ternan—had 15 and 11 points respectively.

Georgetto and Robertson paced the win over Reuff with 15 points each. Norm Porte and Anderson each added 10.

Wally Schelpp, Bill Boucher and Kevin Merrick scored 17, 13 and 15 points respectively to carry Graysons past the Knights. The Graysons trailed, 26-22, at the half and 44-42 at the end of three quarters.

Jim Macer's 20 points paced Equitable to the win over Dunkers. Don Nuovinon and Paul Goodrich had 14 and 12 points for the losers.

Bill Churchman scored 16 points for the Nats in their win over Shell.

St. Mary's Is Eliminated in WCAC Race

St. Mary's College closes out its 1961-62 basketball season and plays its last game under coach Jim Weaver tomorrow night at the University of San Francisco. Weaver announced his resignation in January, effective in June.

The Gaels were eliminated from the West Coast Athletic Conference title chase last Saturday night by champion Pepperdine, 81-77, then bowed to Santa Clara, 77-70, Tuesday night.

The Gaels now have a 7-4 league record, but were the only team with a chance to catch Pepperdine.

St. Mary's was 7-2 and the Waves 9-1 going into last Saturday night's clash at the Oakland Auditorium.

THE WAVES, 3-9 last year, made it clear they wanted their first WCAC title and with 6-3 junior Bob Warlick scoring 29 points, they weren't to be denied.

St. Mary's held a slim advantage throughout most of the first half, but faltered in the last few minutes to trail, 45-38, at the break.

Pepperdine led, 68-67, with six minutes to play, but pulled away at that point with eight straight points.

Two other juniors, Harry Dinnel and Noel Smith, were the other standouts for Pepperdine.

Mrs. Eadie Is Tilden Winner

Mrs. W. L. Eadie was the winner in Class A in the Medal Sweepstakes of the Tilden Park Women's Golf Club held last week.

Mrs. Eadie shot an 86 and finished with a net 74.

She also tied with Mrs. H. Bartholomew and Mrs. C. S. McCoy for lowest number of putts—30.

Mrs. Larry Tinker was the winner in Class B with a 100-20-80.

In Class C, Mrs. R. L. Pierson took top honors with a 102-29-73.

Two Teams Have 2-0 Records in PH Cage League

Champion Plumbing and Jess Barbers are tied for the top spot in second round play, of the Pleasant Hill Recreation Adult 'A' Basketball League.

Both teams are 2-0.

The Barbers passed the century mark in routing Curtain Shop, a B league member in the first round, 111-73. It was the second loss for the Curtain Shop.

Four players were in the double figures for the Barbers. Chuck Franks led the list with 20, Ed Urlrich had 18, Jim Roscoe had 13 as did Mike Swinney.

JIM MOLINARI had 21 points for the losers. Close behind was Tim Grasso with 20.

Champion Plumbing picked up its second win the easy way when Danville Cement, a victor in its first game, failed to show up.

In an other A game last week, the Untouchables won their first game, edging Co-op, 57-55. Co-op was the winer of the B league crown in first half play, taking the title in a special playoff with Curtain Shop. It was Co-op's second loss in A play.

Larry Reagan was the big man for the Untouchables, scoring 33 points. Steve Lamphere had 25 points for Co-op while Frank Vallerino chipped in with 17.

The Yangs Yangs picked up their first win and handed the Dons their first loss, 63-58, in the other A game last week.

Bob Jensen paced the Yangs Yangs with 20 points. He had help from Sam Kaye who finished with 15. Tom Strain paced the losers with 16 points.

Mrs. Kusserow Has 76 Despite Wind and Rain

Mrs. Henry Kusserow shot an amazing 76 in the wind and rain at Diablo Country Club last Thursday for the low gross score in the Guest Day Tournament held by the women's golf group. Mrs. Kusserow is a Diablo Country Club member.

Mrs. Peter Patch of Orinda Country Club was the low net winner in the first group with a 74. Mrs. Mike Pavilini of Walnut Creek finished second with a 75 and Mrs. Arthur Anderson of Orinda was third with a 76.

In the second group, Mrs. J. H. Carter of Diablo and Mrs. Reginald Bowman of Hayward tied for top honors with net 74s. Mrs. Boise Ketcham of Danville was third with a 76.

Mrs. Frank Ivaldi of Hayward was tops in the third group with a net 81. Mrs. John Osmundson of Round Hill was second with an 82 while Mrs. John Dovier of Danville had an 85.

Donna Breaks Own Record in PA Meet

Donna deVarona of Lafayette, swimming unattached, broke her own American record in the 200-yard individual medley at the Pacific Association Senior Swimming Championships last weekend at San Francisco State College.

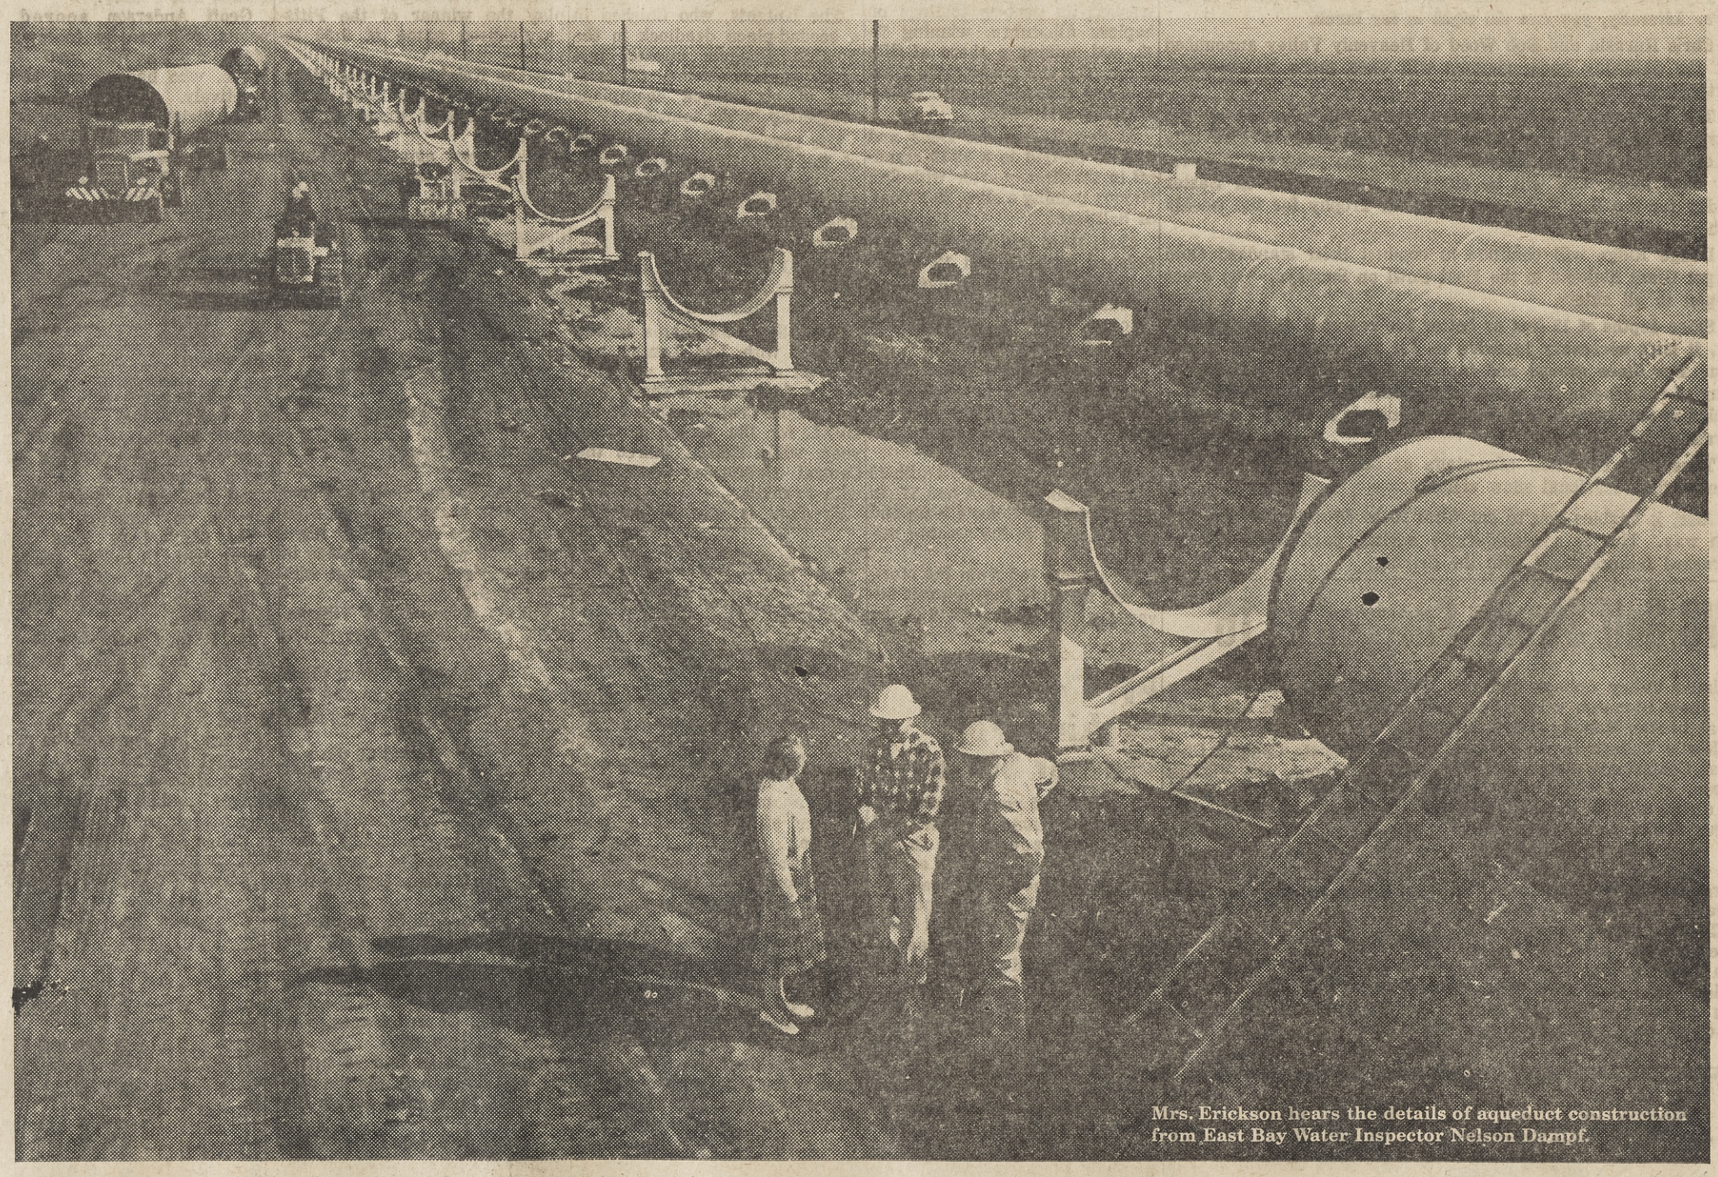
Donna won the event in 2:18.8, breaking her old record of 2:19.3. The time also set a new PA mark.

Miss deVarona also won the 100-yard freestyle with a 56.2 clocking.

Hammond Scores Ace at Orinda

Art Hammond scored a hole-in-one recently at the Orinda Country Club where he is a member.

Hammond recorded his ace on the 13th hole, using a five wood.



Mrs. Erickson hears the details of aqueduct construction from East Bay Water Inspector Nelson Dampf.

Orinda Housewife Edith Erickson asks: "Will we ever need all that water?"

East Bay Water wanted to get a housewife's reaction to the new "Giant M" Aqueduct now under construction between Pardee Dam in the Sierra and Walnut Creek. So we invited Mrs. Charles Erickson of Orinda up to Bixler to see it.

This 93-mile aqueduct, whose 181-million gallons a day will more than double our present ability to bring water to the East Bay, is only part of your $283-million Water Development Program. When this program is completed, it will guarantee you and your children a plentiful supply of soft, pure water.

"I'm glad I could see this exciting new pipeline. It's reassuring to know that our grandchildren will have all the water they'll need."

"We've lived in the East Bay all our married life, and I guess we just assumed there would always be plenty of good water."

"Mr. Dampf tells me this huge 7-foot aqueduct will bring us as much water as the other two we now have."

"You wonder if we'll ever need all that water! Still, there'll be a lot more of our grandchildren than there are of us. This is for them."

New Legislation Affects Local School Districts

(The following is the first of a series of three articles prepared by the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus, describing the effects of new legislation on curriculum.)

The effects of a far-reaching pair legislative bills will be felt in Contra Costa County classrooms this fall.

Between them, the Casey-Bee bill and Winton bill will (1) revise the course of study in some elementary, junior high and high schools, (2) necessitate new time tables for administering IQ and achievement tests in elementary and high schools and (3) make mandatory by 1965 the teaching of foreign language in the elementary grades.

While the education code previously spelled out the subjects that must be taught in the elementary grades, the Casey-Bee bill amends it to require them at specific grades.

READING, writing, spelling and arithmetic are to be taught in all grades, 1-8. English, geography and history are required from grade 4 upward. In grades 6-8, the additional required subjects are civics, health, natural science and, after June 1965, foreign language.

Art and music continue to be mandatory, but grade levels are not prescribed.

Other mandatory subjects are not affected by the Casey-Bee bill. Instruction in public safety and accident prevention, and manners and morals is mandatory in every grade; physical education in every elementary grade; alcohol and narcotics education at elementary and high school levels; fire prevention at elementary, and driver education in high school.

Some discretionary powers over the course of study remain with the county board of education and city governing boards. In Contra Costa County the county board has jurisdiction over the course of study in elementary grades throughout the county except in "city" districts, of which there are four—Richmond School District and Antioch, Mt. Diablo and Pittsburg Unified School Districts.

THESE FIVE agencies are to prescribe for the schools within their jurisdiction the grade level at which art and music, alcohol and narcotics education and fire prevention are to be taught, may prescribe an additional maximum three subjects, and may require instruction in English, geography and history below grade 4.

From grade 7 upward to high school graduation the Casey-Bee bill requires students to have five years of English and five years of history and generally describes matter to be covered and course objectives.

The law is interpreted as not being retroactive, but pupils now in grade 9 who have not yet met the requirements must do so in grades 10-12.

English presents no problem, because students already take at least five years between grades 7-12, and probably the majority of school districts already incorporate in their curriculum the history requirements of the Casey-Bee bill.

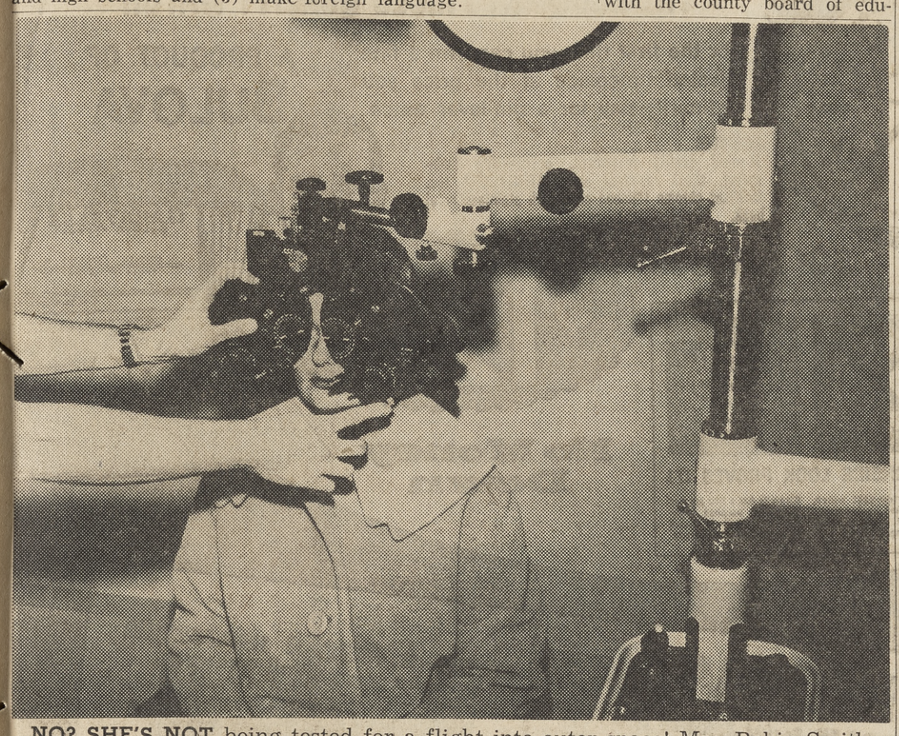
But, scheduling and grade placement changes and some ambiguities of the law awaiting interpretation complicate the schools' task of compliance.

CONSPICUOUS among the complications which the bill has introduced into the school scene is the shift of responsibility for course of study in grades 7-8 to the governing board of the elementary districts, leaving the county board responsible for the course of study up through grade 6 and high school district boards for that of grades 7-8 in junior high schools.

It is the hope of the State Department of Education that 1963 legislation will restore the responsibility for 7-8 grade course of study in elementary schools to the county board of education and that in the meantime the board will develop the 7-8 grade course study and elementary school districts adopt it for use in their schools.

ANOTHER LEGAL question centers on the application of the course of study section of the Casey-Bee bill to the junior high curriculum. The legal advisor to the State Board of Education finds that, as written, it does not apply.

If the attorney general concurs, the courses outlined by the Casey-Bee bill will be mandatory for 7-8 grade students in elementary schools but not for 7-8 grade students in junior high schools.



NO? SHE'S NOT being tested for a flight into outer space! Mrs. Robin Smith is going through a normal procedure to determine if she needs glasses or advice on saving her eyesight over the years. "Keep Your Vision Up-to-Date" is the theme of national "Save Your Vision Week," which is this week!

Mrs. John Kelly Serves County as Welfare Planner

Appointment of Mrs. John Kelly to serve as a Contra Costa representative on the Bay Area Welfare Planning Federation was announced by Ben Goldberger, president of the Contra Costa Council of Community Services.

The Bay Area Federation focuses on planning and coordination in the fields of health, welfare, and education in the five counties of the Bay Area through the offices of the Councils for Community Service in each of these areas.

Other representatives serving on the federation board representing Contra Costa are: E. T. Kenrick, B. J. Callaghan, Ralph Harris

Elks Bowlers Receive Honor From Tourney

Five members of the bowling team of Walnut Creek Elks Lodge No. 1811 were presented handsome trophies at a recent lodge meeting, representing honors won at the state Elks convention in Santa Monica.

The local team captured second place in the Class B team competition at the statewide convention's tournament.

Accepting the trophies from acting exalted ruler Al Malnick were team members Paul Adams, Al Cochrane, Frank Venturini.

YMCA Will Take Youngsters on Canyon Trip

Marine Ends Combat Course

Marine Pvt. Edward B. Kiesel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Kiesel of 20 Crest Road, Lafayette, completed the four-week individual combat training course on March 2, at the Second Infantry Training Regiment at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton.

This training, which every new marine undergoes upon completion of recruit training, covers combat formations, fire and maneuver, supporting weapons, individual protection, safe movement during day and night, assaulting a fortified position, combat in towns, vertical envelopment and coordinating tank and infantry attacks.

Ensign Pope in Glenn Rescue

Navy Ensign Rex A. Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin W. Pope of 1754 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette, is serving with Patrol Squadron 16 which participated in recovery operations of the "Project Mercury" orbital space flight.

The "Friendship 7" capsule which carried Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn, Jr., on the history-making three-orbit flight was retrieved at sea by the destroyer USS Noa approximately five hours after launching.

Plant Spring Flowers Under Protective Cover

The secret of early spring flowers is growing plants under a waxed paper hotkap protector.

Pansies can be grown to full bloom and English primroses can be kept in their own waxed paper greenhouse until the flower buds start to form.

Home gardeners have found that the only way to grow cinerarias successfully is under hotkaps, for these are seriously damaged when buffeted by cold winds and exposed to damage by slugs and snails.

You can have sweet peas weeks earlier if you give them the protection of this miniature greenhouse.

THE SEEDLINGS are often damaged by birds when they are left exposed. When they are too big for the hotkaps the birds will leave them alone.

You can have earlier summer flowers if you wait until all danger of frost is past to transplant seedlings into the garden.

Give them hotkap protection and they will respond with blooms several weeks earlier.

There's a BIG DIFFERENCE Between Savings Institutions...

COMPARE

WHY TAKE LESS FOR YOUR INSURED SAVINGS?

COMPARE THE EARNINGS: Our 4-6/10% interest is over 31% more than regular bank interest. Why take a penny less than Northern California's highest interest on insured savings accounts?

COMPARE THE SAFETY: Your Berkeley Savings account is insured to $10,000 by a permanent U.S. Government agency, Washington, D.C. Your funds are as safe as America itself.

COMPARE THE ADDED BENEFITS: There's a big difference in savings and loan associations, too. Berkeley Savings gives you these advantages:

"COMPARE" — Added safeguards: Reserves of $9½ million are at a ratio of more than 10% of savings accounts. Resources over $125 million, highest since our founding in 1922.

"COMPARE" — Peace of mind: You've trusted your savings to Berkeley Savings, one of the largest (within the top 2%) of America's 6,400 savings and loan associations.

"COMPARE" — Profit with Safety: Conservative Berkeley Savings ... preferred by pension, trust, and corporate funds ... gives savers higher earnings with absolute safety.

THIS LOVELY POOL, complete with waterfall (and a trout pond that you can't see) was awarded a citation for design excellence in an international competition recently. The pool was designed and built by Orinda Pools for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns on Condit Road, Lafayette.

Two Lafayette Pools Win Excellence Awards

Two Lafayetee home swimming pools have received international honors for excellence of design.

Citations were awarded to the pool of Dr. and Mrs. John Tarver of Happy Valley and to the pool built for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Burns on Condit Road. The awards were made in an international competition at the recent convention by Swimming Pool Institute in Las Vegas attended by members from 37 states and 10 foreign countries.

Donald L. Doughty, another Lafayette resident, designed and built both pools.

THE TARVERS' pool is a free-form beauty providing 52 feet in length.

For the early morning swims, Dr. Tarver can step right in from the deck that fronts his bedroom, and overhangs the pool.

An arched red bridge with black lacquered railing crosses the pool at its narrowest point. Tiling is turquoise, copings are white stone, and the deck of exposed aggregate. Bonsai plantings and boulders are used in decoration.

This pool was designed to compliment the Oriental theme of the Tarver dwelling.

THE BURNS' pool is of an entirely different type.

The setting is sylvan, dominated by a seven-branch bay tree which the owner wished to preserve. Also, a natural stream runs through the yard. Burns desired a trout pool created in it, and a waterfall carried from this to the swimming pool.

Dirt excavated for the swimming pool was used in building a natural appearing mound to dam up a trout basin. Down the side of the mound, the creek was channeled almost to the edge of the pool.

Near the edge of the swimming pool the creek runs beneath boulders, and seems to emerge from beneath them to fall into the pool. In actuality, it is diverted beneath the boulders and runs back into its natural bed.

Running a natural stream into a swimming pool would upset all sorts of things — water level chemical content, temperature.

Therefore the designer simply placed an extra pump so that it constantly draws water out of the summing pool and rotates the same water back into it, in what appears to be the final stage of the "waterfall" entering the pool.

These prize winners are two of the several hundred pools built in this area by Doughty, who is beginning his sixth year as president of Orinda Pools, Inc., of Lafayette.

Orindan to Preside

Mrs. Virla Krotz of Orinda, president of the California Federation of Republican Women, Northern, will preside over a session of the organization's first quarterly meeting of 1962.

Will Your Kids Walk in Safety?

By DICK OSBORN

Will the children who walk to Walnut Heights School have a safe path to travel?

If they do, it will be largely the work of Mrs. Larry Coleman, who has started a dedicated effort to construct walkways along Walnut Boulevard.

This winding, hilly road, is currently the only road youngsters can use as they walk to school . . . and in many places there is no place to walk but on the shoulder of the road itself.

Mrs. Coleman became upset over this problem (she has three children in school now and will soon have a fourth) and started out to see what she could do about it.

SHE WENT to the Walnut Creek School District officials and found that they could do nothing. They cannot carry children on the school buses if they live within a mile of the school, and they have no funds for building walkways along city streets and county roads.

This didn't stop Mrs. Coleman. She found that the city and the county were both involved, so she called a meeting.

And that meeting, held recently, included Mrs. Rose Hawkins, safety chairman for the 32nd District PTA; Mrs. Herbert Kent, safety chairman, Walnut Heights PTA; Mrs. Ray Arnold, president of the PTA; Mark Kermit, county safety engineer; Doug Rose, assistant superintendent, business, for the Walnut Creek School District; Paul Kilkenny, assistant director, County Public Works Department; Armand Monlux, parent; Douglas Carlson, engineer, parent and PTA member; Armand Werle, Walnut Creek Department of Public Works director and Mrs. Donald Stull, parent and resident.

MRS. COLEMAN got this group together at Walnut Heights School and spent three hours walking them up and down Walnut Boulevard, pointing out the danger spots and listing improvements that can be made.

"Money, of course, is going to be our big problem," she said, "but we figure we can do it with volunteer labor and the help we can get from the city and county."

With the group in hand, Mrs. Coleman walked them from Walnut Heights School to Eckley Lane and back again, then from the school to Bales Road and back.

"We came up with a pretty good routing and a pretty thorough plan as a result of that hike," she said.

ON THE WEST section the plan calls for keeping the children on the school (east) side of Walnut Boulevard between the school and the city limits. The county has indicated it will put a crosswalk on Walnut Boulevard at this point, and the school district will provide a junior traffic patrol.

The children will then cross the street to the west side and walk along Walnut to Shady Glen Road. The county indicated it would install a crossbar and crosswalk at this point to bring the children back to the north side of the road.

The walkway will then continue to Eckley Lane which will also be provided with a crosswalk.

On the south side of Walnut Heights School the walkway proceeds along the north side of Walnut Boulevard to Ball Road. Then there is a crossing and the walkway continues on the south side to Bales Road.

"WE HAVEN'T decided what kind of material we'll use for the walk yet," said Mrs. Coleman, "but it will probably be an inexpensive gravel type."

THIS DEDICATED GROUP is studying a problem which is not unique to Walnut Heights School. The problem is that of a place for children, who do not travel by school bus, to walk along our twisting and frequently dangerous roads. Working on walkways for Walnut Boulevard are, left to right, Mrs. Herbert Kent, safety chairman of Walnut Heights PTA; Doug Rose, assistant superintendent, business, for the Walnut Creek School District, and Mrs. Larry Coleman, who started the whole investigation. Sun photo by Jim Dodge.

Money for construction materials will have to come from the PTA and interested parents, she indicated.

"There are some spots where shrubs and ice plant may have to be removed," Mrs. Coleman continued. "But it is all on county right-of-way so we are not anticipating any trouble. Nothing will be touched that is on private property.

"We are planning to write a letter to all homes which have any kind of planting in the area where we feel the walkway should go. Then we will try to arrange a meeting of interested fathers, line up a work force and get an organization going," Mrs. Coleman said.

KILKENNY TOLD Mrs. Coleman that if she could get a section of the walkway started, then the county would come in and help as the work progressed.

"We might start," said Mrs. Coleman, "with the section between the school and the first crosswalk on the north side of Walnut Boulevard. This will involve having the street repaired by the city so the county can put in the first crosswalk, and building enough walkway to cover the four parcels involved."

Mrs. Coleman pointed out a minor dispute between city and county officials concerning a "school" sign located in the approximate location of the proposed crosswalk. The dispute is whether or not it is city or county property.

"THAT WILL be checked, though," said Mrs. Coleman, "and I received assurance that if the county doesn't put up a new sign the city will. It will be a fluorescent or reflector sign rather than the plain one that is there now, too."

So, if you see a group of fathers out "working on the road" in the future, it won't be a chain gang. It will mean that Mrs. Larry Coleman has succeeded and there will be a safe place for Walnut Heights School children to walk along Walnut Boulevard.

Bank Robber Becomes Center of Controversy

Thomas N. Lindsay, convicted and sentenced to Alcatraz for bank robberies in Walnut Creek and Orinda, has become the center of a new controversy.

San Mateo County District Attorney Keith Sorenson was rebuked by Federal Judge Albert Wollenberg, who accused Sorenson of "irresponsibility" in publicly referring to other alleged crimes of Lindsay.

A San Francisco daily newspaper said San Mateo County wanted to get Lindsay transferred to its jurisdiction to try him for other crimes, including rape, kidnaping and sex perversion.

The story quoted Sorenson.

Judge Wollenberg called the story "the act of irresponsible people . . ." He denied a defense motion for a new trial and asked Sorenson to appear next Tuesday to explain the matter.

Defense attorney Lin Densmore asked for a new trial on the basis that the newspaper article was "highly inflammatory and prejudicial" to Lindsay . . .

Lindsay was convicted taking at gunpoint some $4000 from the Walnut Creek First Savings and Loan Association and $3700 from the Orinda Central Valley Bank.

Hampton Road Apparition Apprehended

Milton, the monster, has been been unmasked!

The monster - masked mystery figure, who with three other scary apparitions had been terrorizing motorists on Hampton Road in Orinda for nearly a month, is Donald D. McClaskey, 17, of 60 Ulrich Lane, El Sobrante.

McClaskey told sheriff's deputies he started the prank to scare some girlfriends. When the trick worked, the foursome repeated the operation in the isloated spot several times.

Juvenile officers have decreed that the four young men will return to clean up trash left by monster-hunters.

ORDINANCE No. 1599

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE No. 278 OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA, STATE OF CALIFORNIA PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN INTERIM LAND USE DISTRICT FOR A PORTION OF THE UNINCORPORATED TERRITORY OF THE COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa, State of California do ordain as follows:

SECTION I. Section 3 of Ordinance 278 is hereby amended by the addition of Section 3 FF at the end thereof as follows:

SECTION 3FF: An Interim General Purpose District (Map Symbol IGP) is hereby established for a portion of the unincorporated territory of the County of Contra Costa located in the Moraga area and not heretofore classified by any zoning ordinance. Said Interim General Purpose District is hereby established as the land use district for that portion of the Moraga area, County of Contra Costa, as designated on the map entitled "Interim Land Use Districts for the Moraga Townsite Area," which is hereby referred to and by this reference incorporated herein.

SECTION II. This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect and shall be in full force immediately upon its adoption and within fifteen (15) days after said adoption shall be published with the names of the members of the Board of Supervisors voting for and against the same, once in the "ORINDA SUN", a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in said County. The conditions constituting such urgency are as follows:

The land covered by this ordinance is not presently zoned. Studies have been conducted to determine proper classifications for lands in the Moraga area. Certain studies and recommendations for classification have been made but the Planning Commission and the Board of Supervisors believe further study should be conducted and further consideration should be given before permanent zoning is adopted for some areas in the Moraga area. Such additional study and consideration will be completed in the near future. In order to prevent various persons from putting certain properties to uses which would be detrimental to the health, safety and welfare of the people and destroy the purposes and objectives of the master and zoning plans for said area, the Board of Supervisors finds and determines that immediate operation of this ordinance is therefore necessary to protect the health, safety and welfare.

SECTION III. This odinance shall remain in effect until February 20, 1963, and shall thereafter be null and void.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted by the said Board of Supervisors of the County of Contra Costa at a regular meeting of said Board held on the 27th day of February, 1962, by the following vote:

AYES: Supervisors: James P. Kenny, Thomas John Coll, Edmund A. Linscheid, Joseph S. Silya.

NOES: Supervisors: None.

ABSENT: Supervisor: Mel F. Nielsen.

Miramonte Students Hear Two-Sided AFS Story

A recent all-school assembly and exchange of foreign-student visitors focused attention on the American Field Service program at Miramonte High School.

During "AFS Week," Miramonte's overseas guests, Jean-Michel Sicre of France, and Elizabeth Davidson of Sweden, traveled to other schools in California, while two others took their places.

Helmut "Hank" Jordan of Germany and Anne Bolin of Sweden, who are guests at other California schools, lived with student hosts and their families, Linda Lindsay and Tom Gunn, and attended Miramonte classes for the week.

THE VISITORS were also guests at the student body assembly on Monday, February 21st, with Miramonte's own recently returned AFS students. Karen Olsen spoke of her experiences in Ahlen, Westphalen, Germany, and Mike Eaton recalled events from his stay in Milan, Italy.

Each of these students lived with European families and attended European schools during the past fall semester.

In recounting her impressions, Miss Olsen felt classroom life in Ahlen was more systematized than that of the American high school. Students were not given a choice of electives, nor were any "creative" approaches to education evident.

Rather, she said, classes were a routine of rote learning, recitations, and exams based on a single textbook for each course.

She felt, however, that the school may not have been typical of German education, since it was a parochial girls' school in a very small town.

Most valuable of her experiences, Karen stated, was the realization that people in Germany have basically the same goals we do — "peace, understanding, and hapiness . . ." and that her own understanding increased immeasurable by her contacts.

EATON, now attending University of California after completing Miramonte on an accelerated schedule, recalled the warmth and hospitality of his Italian friends, an unrelenting struggle with the Italian language—having studied it only a few weeks before his departure for Europe—and basic organizational differences between Italian and U.S. schools.

Both manners and school attire seemed basically more formal than those in the U.S., he stated.

With a shortage of time at the assembly, students were not able to hear from Anna Bolin of Sweden, but Jordan was able to supplement Karen's talk on Germany with some of his own views.

He explained that basic differences between U.S. and German schools do exist, primarily as a result of more stringent requirements imposed in Germany on college-preparatory schools.

Only about 30 per cent of the applicants are able to pass entrance exams which allow them to take the nine-year "high school" program.

ONCE they are admitted, all subjects are required, with no electives, and students must keep in mind extensive final examinations in all areas, which will be taken in groups of five to 10 students, proctored by at least two professors at all times.

Jordan also gave his comments on Europe's future, placing some hope on a prosperous European common market, which might be a step toward an eventual United States of Europe. This, he felt, would be desirable as a "buffer" unit between the U.S. and Europe.

While the "Barbed Wall" between East and West Germany is a real and ominous factor, he stated that its presence may best be counteracted by organizations such as the AFS, voicing the slogan, "Walk together, talk together, people of the earth; for then and only then will you get peace."

Teachers Hold Conference

Diablo Valley College's Student California Teachers' Association hosted a teachers' conference on Saturday at the campus.

Centered on the teacher's professional problems, the theme of the program was "What Is Expected of a Teacher."

Adoption Auxiliary Will Review Research Study

Diablo Adoption Auxiliary members will meet at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. James Gauld, 8948 Cottonwood Drive, Concord. Mrs. David McClintic of Concord will review a research study made by Dr. Kirk of McGill University.

Dr. Kirk has analyzed letters written to the editors of McCall's magazine in response to their 1959 article entitled "To My Adopted Daughter — I Wish I Hadn't Told You." During his recent period as visiting professor at Whittier College in southern California, Dr. Kirk presented a lecture series on "Parent-Child Relations in Adoption" which have been secured by the auxiliary and will be available for private reading. Mrs. Paul Epperson, auxiliary president, will give a brief description and outline of contents to the group.

Anyone interested in attending the March meeting is cordially invited to do so and may make arrangements by calling Mrs. Albert Bower, MU 2-8157, or Mrs. Paul Epperson, YE 5-4803.
